REBELS REPORT THE 12,000 FEDERALS IN
SALTILLO HAVE FLED

Evacuation, It Is Believed, Would Leave Large Quantity of War Stores in Villa's Hands—Wilson Seeks to Aid "Submerged 85 Per Cent in Mexico—Mediators Resume Session, Meeting Huerta Delegates.

By Associated Press.

JUAREZ, May 21.—A telegram was received today from Gen. Felipe Angeles by H. Perez Abreu, head of the Constitutionalist information bureau here, stating that Saltillo was evacuated last night by the Federals.

The garrison of Saltillo is said to number 12,000 men under Gen. Joaquin Maas. The town, it is believed, contained large stores of ammunition and supplies, and if the report of the evacuation is true, it is probable that a large quantity of munitions of war will fall into Constitutionalist hands.

The only road of retreat open to the Federals is said to be south to San Luis Potosi. The 250 miles separating the two towns is an arid desert, and it is believed here that but a small part of the Federal garrison will be able to win their way through to San Luis Potosi.

A strong rebel force under Gen. Carrera Torres is besieging San Luis Potosi and between the towns a large force under Gen. Luis Guttierrez, called the "Tiger of Concepcion," is waiting to cut off the Federal retreat.

The evacuation of Saltillo, if confirmed, will mean a long step in the direction of the coveted goal of the Constitutionalist, Mexico City. It will be impossible for the Federals to carry with them on the desert march to San Luis Potosi any large quantity of provisions or ammunition, as the railroad has been cut.

The Federals who win their way through the desert and the Constitutionalist lines will find themselves in a town much less adapted for defense than Saltillo.

President Seeks to Help Plain People of Mexico Win Liberty

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—In the number of the Saturday Evening Post out today, statements that the cardinal plan of President Wilson's Mexican platform was the destruction of the land-monger monopoly, are corroborated by the President himself.

"My ideal," the President said, "is an orderly and righteous government in Mexico; but my passion is for the submerged 85 per cent of the people of that republic, who are now struggling toward liberty."

"I challenge you to cite me an instance in all the history of the world where liberty was handed down from above! Liberty always is attained by the forces working below, underneath, by the great movement of the people. That, learned by the sense of wrong and oppression and injustice, by the ferment of human rights to be attained, brings freedom."

The President relaxed from his tense attitude and smiled.

"It is a curious thing," he continued, "that every demand for the establishment of order in Mexico takes into consideration, not order for the benefit of the people of Mexico, the great mass of the population, but order for the benefit of the old-time regime, for the aristocrats, for the vested interests, for the men who are responsible for this very condition of disorder. No one asks for order because order will help the masses of the people to get a portion of their rights and their land; but all demand it so that the great owners of property, the overlords, the hidalgos, the men who have exploited that rich country for their own selfish purposes, shall be able to continue their processes undisturbed by the protests of the people from whom their wealth and power have been obtained."

"The dangers that beset the Republic are held to be the individual and corporate troubles of these men, not the aggregated injustices that have been heaped on this vast greater section of the population that is now struggling to recover by force what has always been theirs by right."

"They want order—the old order; but I say to you that the old order is dead. It is my part, as I see it, to aid in composing those differences so far as I may be able, that the new order, which will have its foundation on human liberty and human rights, shall prevail."

It will be the settled policy of the President, according to his interview, to keep Mexico territorially intact. The United States will not seek to gain a foot of territory under any pretext, and while legitimate business interests will be encouraged, no aggrandizement by American investors or adventurers or capitalists will be permitted. He will insist on a Constitutional settlement of the agrarian question under such

Mediators Confer With Huerta

Men on Tentative Peace Plans

By Associated Press.

QUAGRA FALLS, Ont., May 21.—The three South American mediators, in an informal conference today with the representatives of Gen. Huerta, sought to learn in a general way the viewpoint of the Mexican representatives on various tentative plans for a solution of the Mexican problem.

The mediators pursued the same course with the Mexican delegates today as they did with the American peace commissioners last night. No formal expression of views was required, but the mediators suggested hypothetical steps, looking to a settlement of the Mexican imbroglio and the paths of quiet and prosperity.

GHIO EXECUTORS
LIST $150,358 AS PART OF ESTATE

Valuable St. Louis Realty Holdings, Owned Jointly With Wife, Are Not Included.

SHE IS PRINCIPAL HEIR

$66,770 Securities Considered Worthless; County Wants Inheritance Tax on Books.

The inventory of the estate of James C. Ghio, who died Feb. 2 at his country home, "Tranquilla," on the St. Charles Rock road, west of Wellston, was filed in the Probate Court at Clayton Thursday. It lists personal property valued at $150,358.11, in addition to 237 acres of land, and real estate in St. Louis and East St. Louis.

The inventory states that Ghio's most valuable holdings are not listed, inasmuch as they were owned jointly with his wife. They consist, in the main, of downtown real estate.

3061 Acres of Texas Land.

Ghio's real estate, listed in the inventory, consists of 3061 acres in six counties in Texas, 120 acres in St. Louis County, 85 acres, comprising his country home in the county, 16 lots in Alta Vista Park, East St. Louis, and 11 pieces of St. Louis real estate. No value is placed upon his realty holdings.

His personal property is divided as follows: Notes, $255; stocks, par value, $110,768.33; bonds, $1,000; life insurance, $20,000; cash, $215.58; good and chattels, $1219.20.

Of the stock, $100,000 is held in the Parada-Ghio Real Estate Co., of which he was vice-president. The St. Louis Union Trust Co., as executor, states it has been unable to find certificates representing three of these shares.

$25,700 Stocks Thought Worthless.

The executor says Ghio held $25,700 worth of stocks and $11,000 worth of bonds which probably are worthless, and which were not listed in the value of his personal property. The stocks are in five gold mining companies and the bonds were those issued by the States of Tamaulipas and San Luis Potosi, in Mexico, dated Sept. 1, 1885, and due in 1885.

Probate Judge Shackelford said he would investigate to see why a collateral inheritance tax is not paid on a collection of books and stamps which Ghio left to the St. Louis Club. This collection included Ghio's "Racing and Stud Book Collection of over 150 years," "Napoleon Memorials," the Burton Collection, English and American revolutions, a postage stamp collection of more than 25,000 specimens and one of his medals and certificates of papal nobility.

Had a Papal Title.

Ghio was 68 years old. The foundation of his fortune was made in the wholesale liquor business in St. Louis. He left his estate in trust for his wife. At her death it is to be divided among four children, John B. and James C. Martin Ghio, Mrs. Freeland J. Dunn of St. Louis and Mrs. Joseph A. McMenamy of Los Angeles, Cal.

Pope Pius X, in August, 1906, conferred upon Ghio the title of "Commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great." It admits its holder to a place in the papal nobility. The distinction was a reward for his paying off the debts of the Italian Catholic Church of St. Charles Borromeo, amounting to $7600.

BOOKKEEPER AND BANK PRESIDENT WED SECRETLY

Vandalia Man and Bride, Married Tuesday, Made No Announcement.

VANDALIA, Ill., May 21.—William M. Fogler, president of the First National Bank of Vandalia, and Miss Ethel Haines, his bookkeeper, were married Tuesday night at the Methodist parsonage. The wedding was kept a secret until this morning.

Mrs. Fogler is the daughter of Former Circuit Clerk T. M. Jones.

Members of the committee in charge of the unveiling, which is now under cover in its pedestal, are sure it has glass eyes something very unusual in sculpture. The eyes are highly polished, in contrast with the dull bronze of the figure. The pupils are black, and the irises are blue, giving the statue a rather startling effect, the like of which has never been seen in St. Louis.

Members of the committee which commissioned Herr Wilhelm Wandschneider of Germany to model the statue, are divided as to whether Naked Truth has glass eyes.

Samuel M. Lederer of the Pickel Stone Co. made an expert examination of the eyes, and said they were bronze, the same material as the rest of the statue but that they had been put through a special process of glass and color them.

William C. F. Lenz, secretary of the Monument Committee, despite the expert opinion, says he is certain the eyes are glass.

WOMAN HIT BY CAR
DIES OF HER INJURIES

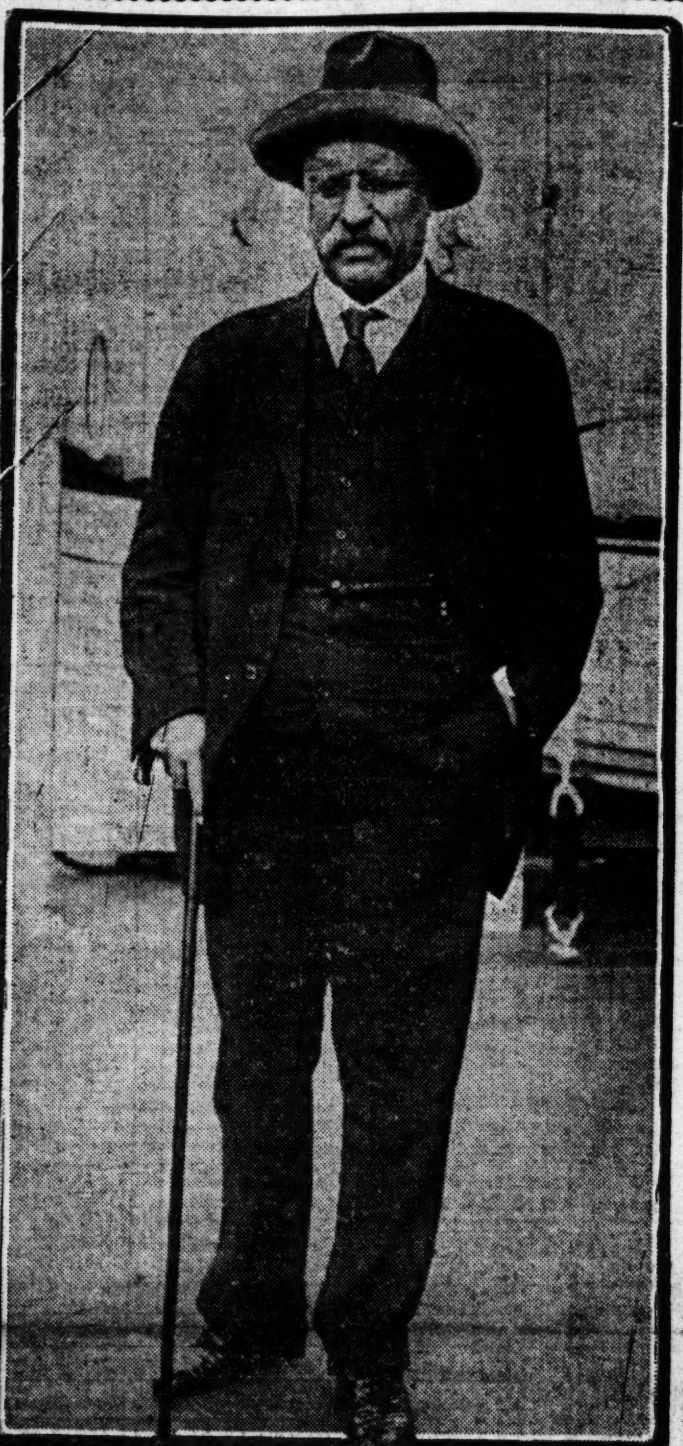

Mrs. Mary McMahon Was Crossing Jefferson Avenue When Run Down.

Mrs. Mary McMahon, 54 years old, of 2621 Caroline street, died at her home Thursday from injuries sustained when she was knocked down by a street car about 10 p. m. Tuesday.

She was crossing Jefferson avenue on the north side of Rutger street when a northbound Jefferson car struck her. Her collarbone was broken and she was out about the head, face and hands.

The car was in charge of Motorman George Jaycox of 212 South Jefferson avenue and Conductor J. H. Nolan of 212 South Jefferson avenue.

Roosevelt Supporting Himself
With Cane as He Arrived Home

FORMER President Roosevelt lost 55 pounds on his exploring expedition in Brazil, and for 5 days his fever was at 105. When he reached New York, his pinched features and limping step caused alarm to his friends, but his tanned cheeks and the energy with which he plunged into politics gave assurance that he soon would be his old self. When he started to Brazil he weighed nearly 225 pounds.

CONVENTION ON
STEAMBOAT TRIP TO KEOKUK DAM

Missouri Electric, Gas, Street Railway and Waterworks Association on Cruise.

MAYOR GOES TO HAVE FUN

Kiel Takes Family Along—Cabaret Performers to Give Entertainment for Delegates.

The eighth annual convention of the Missouri Electric, Gas, Street Railway and Waterworks Association floated away from the foot of Washington avenue on the steamer Quincy at 10:40 a. m. Thursday, on a three days' cruise to the Keokuk dam. There was a 40-minute delay on account of the non-arrival of Gov. Major, who was expected to go along and make a speech. Word was finally received that he had been called to Bowling Green to the bedside of his father, who is critically ill.

Mayor Kiel, anxious not to miss the boat, was there half an hour before leaving time, accompanied by Mrs. Kiel and their daughter, Miss Edna Kiel and Mrs. Granville Hogan. The Mayor said he understood one of the principal purposes of the trip was to have a good time and he expected to have as good a time as any different kinds of a good time as anybody.

He understood also, he said, that there was to be some discussions of public utility matters, but he was rather vague about that.

Cabaret Performers Along.

A hint of one kind of a time that the floating convention is to have was conveyed by the arrival of five cabaret performers. They are scheduled to assist C. H. Jaccard of Webb City in giving a performance Thursday evening. Jaccard's part of the entertainment is to be the reading of a paper on "Water versus Flat Rate on Water Works." The program provides for discussion of his paper and then exhibition dancing and vaudeville. The discussion is expected to be brief.

The women cabaret artists are to give another exhibition without Jaccard's assistance at a dance at the Iowa Hotel, Keokuk, Friday evening.

An orchestra enlivened the departure with ragtime and the whistle of the Quincy was kept busy with the blowing of shore whistles and the "fluttering" of flags and handkerchiefs as the boat steamed past the Union Electric Light and Power plant.

Members of the Board of Public Improvements went along.

Mayor Kiel to Speak.

Mayor Kiel is to deliver an address at the opening business session during the afternoon. Papers are to be read at that session by William J. Norton of Chicago and John C. Hall of St. Louis. At Friday morning's session papers are to be read by F. M. Wilkes of Poplar Bluff and S. H. Wallace of Webster Groves. Keokuk will be reached at noon Friday.

On the return trip the boat will reach St. Louis Saturday afternoon.

SMOKING FORBIDDEN ON NEW STYLE STREET CARS

All Lines to Be Equipped With Vestibule Coaches and Rule Enforced, McCulloch Says.

Smokers will have to forego their cigars, pipes and cigarettes when street cars when all lines of the United Railways system are equipped with the new style closed vestibule cars, many of which are already in use.

Capt. McCulloch, president of the United Railways, Thursday said the rule against smoking would be rigidly enforced on the new cars, though smoking is still permitted on the old style cars.

"The smokers have brought this on themselves," said McCulloch. "We permitted them to smoke in the rear seats, but not content with that they violate the rule by smoking in all parts of the car, greatly to the annoyance of those who do not smoke."

BILL TO PROHIBIT RAIL AND SHIP COMBINATIONS
KILLED BY ROOSEVELT

Mellen Testifies He Refused $20,000, 000 Offer From Morse After Visit to White House in 1907.

CONTENDS CONSOLIDATION IS RAILROADS ONLY HOPE

Former President of New Haven Declares Himself in Favor of Control and Regulation by the Government.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven Railroad, today testified that only President Roosevelt's virtual pledge that the holding of steamship lines by railroads would not be forbidden by law, prevented the sale of $20,000,000 worth of such property to Charles W. Morse in 1907.

Mellen's examination before the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing was conducted by Joseph W. Folk.

Mr. Mellen said he was opposed to the New Haven holding and operating steamship lines.

"I always was against the plan. I was afraid of disasters on these liner boats."

Mr. Mellen, after testifying regarding the offer of $20,000,000 made by Charles W. Morse for the purchase of steamships owned by the New Haven, said he came to Washington and consulted President Roosevelt in regard to the matter.

"Mr. Morse," he said, "had acquired practical control of nearly all the steam lines of the Atlantic Coast. He wanted our holdings and I finally got a definite offer of $20,000,000 from him. I wanted to sell, but I was a great admirer of President Roosevelt and I thought a matter of that kind ought to be laid before the President of the United States. I saw him and he was anxious, apparently, that Morse should be checked in his acquisition of control of steamship lines. He urged me not to sell."

"I told Mr. Roosevelt that as it was expected the bill being prepared by Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations, would contain a clause preventing railroads from owning steamships, it would be to our advantage to accept the Morse offer. I told him I felt it was doubtful that we ought to turn down the proposition when, by it, we could turn our property into cash."

Herbert Knox Smith and Commissioner Rogers and Knapp were present, having been called in by Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt substantially told me that if we did not sell to Morse he would use his influence to prevent our having trouble over our steamships."

"When was the bill put 'n by Attorney-General Bonaparte?"

"I think in 1907."

"Why was the provision preventing the railroads from owning steamships left out?"

"I imagine it was because Mr. Roosevelt kept faith with us."

Before taking up the line of questioning which revealed his visit to President Roosevelt, Mr. Folk inquired into Mellen's present business relations.

Blue, giving the status of today in the New Haven. I disposed of all of my stock. I retain a little interest yet in the Boston & Maine, and in the Ontario & Western."

"Why did you personally favor the consolidation of the trolleys with the New Haven?"

"Because consolidation would result in better service, lower rates and greater satisfaction to the public. I believe the public is better served by a monopoly of transportation than in any other way. I think, however, that the monopoly should be controlled and regulated by the Government."

Q. What do you think railroads generally are doing about the matter? A. I know of nothing a railroad man can do now except take off its hat to some Government official.

Q. If Mr. Morgan had not died, how far would you have gone in this dream of consolidation? A. To heaven, I suppose.

Q. Didn't Morgan have more power than any State government under which you operated? A. He never tried to exercise any such power.

Q. He was in control of the New England situation? A. I can best answer that by quoting the old saying, "Where McGregor sits, there is the head of the table."

Q. What would the meetings of the directors of the New Haven have been like without Mr. Morgan? A. About as tame as a lot of cows without a bull. Despite that he had been on the witness stand for two days undergoing all most uninterrupted questioning by Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the commission. Mr. Mellen apparently was in good physical condition for today's examination. At the conclusion of his testimony yesterday Mr. Mellen began to show signs of fatigue from his prolonged efforts. It appeared today that he was much refreshed after a good night's rest.

Folk took up the questioning today where he had left off yesterday, with the acquisition by the New Haven of trolley lines in Connecticut and Rhode Island. Mr. Mellen conceded yesterday that some of the propositions had been purchased at too high a price, but added that they were worth more to the New Haven at the time than to anybody else. In purchasing the lines, particularly those in Connecticut, he said, he encountered "sharp competition" from other prospective purchasers, and thereby "the price was boosted."

Senator Aldrich Aided Sale.

It first developed at this point that Senator Aldrich was primarily instrumental in selling the trolley system of that State to the New Haven.

Folk asked if there had not been a break in the negotiations after they had been begun.

"There was an interruption of some months, possibly almost a year," answered Mr. Mellen.

Q. What caused you to resume the negotiations? A. Oh, I had conversations regarding the matter with Mr. Morgan, Mr. Dolan and others.

Q. Didn't Senator Nelson W. Aldrich see you about the matter? A. Yes, he called at my home at Stockbridge and asked me what the status of the negotiations was. I told him that from my standpoint I did not think I could yield to the terms. He said he thought them too severe. I believe it was the call of Mr. Aldrich on me at Stockbridge that resulted in the resumption of negotiations, but how important was his influence of what action he took I don't know.

Q. Did the fact that he was a United States Senator at that time have any weight with you? A. That had no influence with me.

Q. Wasn't he a large stockholder in the Rhode Island trolley? A. I think he was.

Mr. Folk, taking up the acquisition of the Rhode Island trolleys today, asked: "What assurance did Senator Aldrich give you to be transmitted to the New Haven directors?"

"I do not remember any," Mr. Mellen replied.

Mr. Mellen stated that his impression was that when Mr. Aldrich saw him at Stockbridge, he made some allusion to resuming negotiations for acquisition of the Rhode Island trolleys.

Mr. Mellen further said that the United Gas and Improvement Co. refused to separate the Connecticut and Rhode Island trolleys. The intimation was that the New Haven had to take the properties in both States in order to get the Rhode Island trolley.

Deficit Never Made Up.

Q. Has the deficit that resulted from the purchase of the Rhode Island trolleys ever been made up? A. No, but I am confident it will be.

Q. So you said $10,000,000 or more for property worth about $5,000,000? A. I do not accept your valuation of $10,000,000.

Q. How do you estimate the value in a case like this? A. When I value a purchase I consider its prospective value, what it ultimately will be worth.

In explaining the purchase of the Rhode Island trolley, Mr. Mellen said that the price paid was in accordance of the Rhode Island company's securities guaranteed by the New Haven Railroad.

"As this was an intercompany transaction," said Mr. Melton, "the price was perfectly immaterial. It simply was the passing of securities between the New Haven and its various subsidiaries. It was the changing of assets from one pocket to another."

Mr. Melton declared that in the Rhode Island trolley transaction he was accompanied by various members of the Board of Directors.

"Was there influence exerted to induce you to acquire these trolley lines?"

"Folk asked."

"That is never known," Mr. Melton responded, "a large transportation matter that was not backed by influence. The fact is that in the acquisition of these trolley lines I was working toward a great principle. Sooner or later, I felt, transportation was to be electricity. I am still confident that my theory was right."

"Do you think control of that kind is fair to the public?"

"The control must be such as was contemplated in the New England, or it can be in the hands of the Government," Mr. Melton answered with emphasis.

"You regard control by one man as a good thing?"

"That is a misnomer. No one man could control it. I had more bosses when I was president of the New Haven at a salary of $60,000 than when I was a clerk at $50 a month."

"The main force was Mr. Morgan, was it not?"

"The great force in the world is brains, and Mr. Morgan had them," Mr. Melton replied squarely.

"The control would have gone to one man?" Mr. Folk continued.

"If his brains controlled the situation he had a right to that control."

"Have you, in the light of later events, changed your view?"

"Mr. Morgan's death changed the situation."

"In response to a question regarding the acquisition of certain Massachusetts trolley lines, Mr. Melton said:

"My interest in the Massachusetts trolley was personal. I bought them myself, and paid for them with my own money. I would have lost money if the stock had gone down. It went up, and I made money. I made a total of $22,500."

"BURLGARS STEAL AUTO

TO HAUL STOLEN SAFE

Machine and Smashed Strong Box Found Near Natural Bridge Road.

Robbers Wednesday night used a stolen automobile to cart a stolen safe to the country. The auto belonged to Thomas Imbs of 1800 South Compton avenue and was taken from in front of the City Club, where he was attending a dinner.

The safe was taken from the Chamberlain Metal Works, 1229 Olive street. At about 12:30 a. m. Thursday, Allen Hensel of 632 Westminister place, who was riding about the country in search of an auto that had been stolen from him in front of a theater at Delmar and Aubert avenues, happened in the night, found the Imbs machine at the side of the Kenilworth road, just south of Natural Bridge road.

The side door had been knocked off the machine. The safe, empty, and with its door battered off, was lying near by. Papers and books were scattered about. A representative of the Chamberlain company said the safe had contained not more than $25.

"MORE FAITH IN MANKIND

IS NEEDED, BRYAN SAYS

Secretary Tells Graduating Class to Trust Others Even if Deceived Occasionally.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Asserting that there is a deplorable scarcity of faith in the world today, Secretary Bryan is of the opinion that there never was a time in the world's history when it is needed as much as at the present.

The Secretary expressed his views on faith at the beginning exercises of a state seminary here last night.

"It is far better that we trust and be deceived occasionally than not to trust at all. Not only must we trust one another, but there are many things in life that we must take on trust—things that we do not understand, and are mysterious to us. Even love is a mystery?"

WORD MISUSED BY JUDGE; MAN GETS A NEW TRIAL

"Or" Used for "And" by Macon, Mo. Court in Instructions in Pocket-Picking Case.

MACON, Mo., May 21.—Joseph Durkin, a St. Louis man, convicted here yesterday of pocket-picking, was sentenced to serve two years in the State penitentiary, was granted a new trial yesterday because one word was wrong in an instruction.

The instruction defined larceny as a wrongful or fraudulent stealing, taking or carrying away. The court held that the conjunction "and" should have been used instead of "or." Durkin has been tried three times before.

Huerta Men Meet Envoys and Discuss Peace Plan

learned the trend of thought of the delegates.

No proposals of a definite character had been made to the Americans and it was understood that none were contemplated today with the Mexicans. In fact one of the principals to the conference expressed the opinion that it might be several days before a definite and comprehensive plan would be submitted for formal consideration to either side.

Sessions are only "talks." Minister Nao of Argentina described the informal sessions with each side as "talks or conversations." Indicating that what was being done was chiefly for the guidance of all parties in shaping the course of the mediation. In the talk of the mediators with the American delegates, no points were broached as having been authorized by the Mexican delegates, but the substance of the talk was nevertheless communicated today by the American delegates to Washington, in line with the policy they have adopted of keeping President Wilson and Secretary Bryan closely advised of developments here.

Today's conference between the South American mediators and the Mexican delegates marked the conclusion of the first step in the attempt being made to compose differences between the United States and Mexico. It completed the first round in their effort to find some middle ground on which both sides to the controversy might be willing to rest their grievances.

Although no definite program was announced, it was thought possible that later in the day there would be a full conference of both sides of the conference.

very for an exchange of views which might lead to the first definite working basis of negotiations.

Villa's Victories Bring Change.

There is feeling on the part of the principals to the conference that the advance of the Constitutionalist army, under Gen. Villa, inevitably must have a bearing upon the settlement of the difficulties between the United States and Huerta's party. When the South American mediators withdrew the invitation they had extended to Gen. Carranza to send delegates here because of the refusal of the Constitutionalist leader to agree to an armistice to continue during the sessions, it was stated that the conference would proceed to a consideration of questions growing out of the Tampico incident and subsequent causes of irritation between the Mexican Federal army and the American military forces.

Official reports coming yesterday from the Constitutionalist sources receding the victory of Villa and his army in the Saltillo campaign have convinced the Mexican representatives here that Huerta's foes cannot be stopped. The execution of a Federal General and his entire staff by Villa has shown that Federal soldiers cannot hope for mercy if they fall into the hands of the Constitutionalist.

That the weakening situation of the Federal forces may force Huerta's hand is recognized here. The Mexican delegates came here, believing that any announcement of Huerta's attitude toward proposals looking to a settlement of the Mexican trouble would be left to them, and their strongest card was believed to be authority given by Huerta to agree to his effacement, conditional upon the selection of a temporary government acceptable to the interests represented by him.

Huerta May Not Dare to Wait.

This has been changed by Villa's successes, and Huerta's supporters fear that he may not dare wait the outcome of the mediation. A dispatch from Mexico City saying that Huerta had confirmed reports that he was willing to retire if his resignation was necessary to peace, later proved to be an error in transmission.

If Villa and his forces are kept out of Mexico City, according to belief here, it will be because of a speedy solution of the problem confronting the U. S. C. mediators, and few believe this to be possible, except through the complete capitulation of Huerta to all of the demands of the Washington Government. With a solution of this problem and the republics of Central and South America in accord concerning the future policy of Mexico, the mediators believe that Carranza, Villa and their assistants would subscribe to their findings, and bloodshed would end.

Villa Reports Execution of Two Generals, 32 of Federal Staff

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, MAZATLAN, Mexico, May 20 (via wireless to San Diego, Cal., May 21).—An army of 5000 Constitutionalist having occupied Tepic with a loss of 400 killed and an unknown number of casualties among the Federals, has begun its advance on Guadalajara.

In advance of the moving troops, a flying squadron of cavalry is working destruction to the Huerta lines of communication, its main object being the damaging of the railroad from Mazatlan to Guadalajara.

The capture of Tepic was accomplished after a desperate struggle. Although the losses of the Federals are uncertain, it is known 200 of them were taken prisoners. Mazatlan is in a state of panic today. Back of the city the Constitutionalist are closing in, and the terror of their approach is augmented by the presence in their ranks of 700 Indians in war paint, whose excesses in the event of the city's fall, it is feared, their white leaders will be unable to control. More dismal to the contemplation of the average citizen is the prospect of the sacking of the city by the Federals when they are forced to retreat, as seems inevitable. It is the general belief that they will not give up Mazatlan

Message Saying Huerta Would Resign, an Error

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., May 21.

REACHED HERE THAT Huerta had authorized his representatives to present his resignation, but it was later explained that there had been an error in transmission of the dispatch. Huerta had said merely that his delegates have no instructions to offer his resignation. Before the correction the envoys of Brazil and Argentina apparently accepted the error and the Mexican delegates themselves evinced the keenest interest when inquiring if the dispatch was authentic.

What Huerta did say, in the course of an interview with the Mexican peace delegates, was that he had no instructions to offer his resignation at the conferences at Niagara Falls. Prior to this the acting Minister of Foreign Affairs, Esteva Ruiz, had declared that the Mexican representatives had been given "ample powers" by the Government to deal with everything that may be discussed at the peace conference, with the object of solving the international difficulty.

to Gen. Obregon without first wrecking the city. A new cause of apprehension to the Mexicans is the arrival of the cruiser South Dakota from Acapulco with her force of marines.

Radio communication has been found very difficult for the Americans, but ever since it mobilized at Mazatlan. Static conditions are such that the wireless operators are able to talk with San Diego, the nearest American point, only intermittently, and then with difficulty. The same trouble has been experienced in communicating with vessels of the fleet at other Mexican ports. When the South Dakota was at Acapulco she found that odd, semi-circular harbor in such a static jumble that for several days no message to the flagship could be transmitted.

Villa's Report Tells of Execution of 32 Federal Generals and Staff.

By Associated Press. JUAREZ, Mexico, May 21.—Seven prominent attorneys from Torreon, Saltillo and Monterrey have been confined in jail by Constitutionalist officials on charges of pernicious political activity, according to word which reached here yesterday. The names of the seven men, said to be well known throughout Northern Mexico, could not be learned here.

Gen. Villa, in his official report to Carranza, said: "It is known that Gen. Miguel Alvarez and Ignacio Munoz fell in the combat. Gen. Osorno and a good number of Federal officials were executed. Regarding the fight at Zeruiche the report says, in part: "There was captured also a General and 22 officers who composed his staff. All were executed immediately."

The putting to death of Gen. Osorno and another General, whose name was not given, together with 32 members of the unidentified General's staff and other Federal officials, indicates the bitterness with which the campaign is being waged against Saltillo. Gen. Osorno's advance in rank in the Federal army had been rapid. It is said he held the Captain's commission only two years ago. Gen. Ignacio Munoz, who was killed in the battle at Faredon, was a nephew of Gen. Porfirio Diaz, and was widely known in the social life of Mexico City.

Gen. Miguel Alvarez, also killed in the battle, began his military career as a Second Lieutenant in the army of Francisco Madero, with whom he is said to have been a favorite before the ill-fated President met his death.

Gen. Guardiola, who was in command of the Federals, had been commandant at Piedras Negras, which he had been forced to evacuate after the occupation of Vera Cruz by American troops.

Bryan Seen President. Says Peace Plans are Progressing. WASHINGTON, May 21.—President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan were in direct touch today with Mexican mediation negotiations at Niagara Falls.

When the President reached the executive offices, Secretary Bryan hastened over from the State Department. The special telegraph wire connecting the White House with headquarters of the American Peace Commissioners was working, and several messages were to have been exchanged between the President and Commissioners Lema and Lehmann.

"Things at the mediation conference are progressing smoothly," Bryan declared, as he left the executive office in great haste. The Secretary was smiling as he rushed by the waiting newspaper men and across the street to his office.

When the President and Bryan began their conference there were several communications from the American commissioners which had arrived in the night relating to their night session with the mediating envoys. These messages, it was reported, set forth a line of procedure suggested by the mediators, and also some preliminary ideas upon which may be based the first interchange of peace proposals.

REBELS TO MAKE CLOTH OF CONFISCATED COTTON

Shipment in U. S. Is Enjoined, So Product Will Be Used in Mexican Mills.

JUAREZ, May 21.—The cotton confiscated by the Constitutionalist after the battle of Torreon will be manufactured into cloth instead of being sold raw if the plans of the Constitutionalist are carried out.

The Spanish refugees from whom the cotton was confiscated have procured an injunction from the United States courts preventing its shipment through the United States. An effort to arrange a compromise between the Spaniards and the Constitutionalist failed and the Constitutionalist announced that the cotton will be manufactured in Mexican mills into cloth.

PUBLIC WELCOME FOR MAN WOUNDED AT VERA CRUZ

St. Joseph Mayor Presents Flag to One of First in Party That Landed There.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 21.—George Neely, a St. Joseph boy, one of the men who landed at Vera Cruz, arrived home last night. Mayor Elliot Marshall welcomed him with an informal speech and presented a large United States flag.

Draine was in one of the first parties landed from the American ships, and was operating a machine gun when a sniper shot him in the stomach. He arrived in New York a week ago on the hospital ship Solace and is here on a month's furlough.

PROGRESSIVES SAY THEY INDORSED CHARTER FIRST

City Committee Disputes Claim of Republican Club to the Honor.

The Progressive party City Committee has challenged the claim of the Twenty-fifth Ward Republican Club to being the first political organization in St. Louis to indorse the proposed new city charter. Eugene A. Vogt, a Progressive party leader and publisher of the official organ, makes the claim that the Progressive City Committee met at the Planters Hotel, May 13, and unanimously declared for the new charter. It is expected that several members of the Democratic and Republican City Committees, through their ward organizations, will indorse the proposed charter, and aid in its passage at the special election, which probably will be called for June 30.

The West End Business Men's Association is sending letters to the other business, district and civic organizations in St. Louis requesting them to indorse the charter. The West End association has indorsed it, and is distributing copies of the draft among its members. It also has opened headquarters at 400 Easton avenue, where meetings for the discussion of the charter are being held. Former Judge Henry S. Caulfield, who was counsel to the Board of Freeholders will speak on the charter Saturday night before the St. Louis Lodge No. 6, F. O. O. F., of which he is a member. The address will be delivered in the assembly hall in the Odd Fellows' Building.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 21.—Sangamon County's oldest resident, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, died yesterday, aged 102.

REORGANIZATION PLAN OPPOSED BY WABASH HEARING

Opposition to the plan of a Bondholders' Committee for reorganization of the Wabash Railroad by taking it out of the hands of receivers and forming a new company to operate it developed early in the hearing before the Missouri Public Service Commission at the Jefferson Hotel, Thursday.

The plan provides for an assessment of $20 on each share of the Wabash stock. New stock would be issued for the old, and each stockholder who paid $20 a share would receive bonds to about one-fourth of his assessment. J. Aspinwall Hodge of New York, representing stockholders, was the principal objector to the reorganization. Under the plan, the reorganization, which was informally presented to the commission in Jefferson City last week, but was formally filed Thursday, the capitalization would be decreased from $19,737,877 to $3,548,000.

The bondholders' committee, represented by Winslow S. Pierce of New York, in its petition for the privilege of reorganizing and carrying out its plan, estimates that it will need $20,380,000 in cash. Of this amount it would use $14,300,000 to take up receivers' certificates; $1,824,000 to acquire debenture bonds and provide coal reserve; $12,000 to pay interest on refunding bonds; $4,060,000 to take up other securities; $1,106,000 for equipment obligations; $3,500,000 for new equipment and working capital; $2,548,000 for expenses of reorganization.

During the presentation of the case to the commission it developed that the bondholders' committee recently purchased 20,000 acres of coal land near Taylorville, Ill., at $30 an acre, and expected to transfer the land to the new company. J. L. Minnis, attorney for the company, said the transfer would be made at cost. He denied that the railroad company intended to go into the commercial coal business.

It also developed that the bondholders expected to spend $2,548,000 in effecting the reorganization. These expenses would include foreclosure of mortgage on property of the Wabash, attorneys' fees, eradicate and bankers' commissions and recording fees. No statement was made of the details which make up this amount.

Fixed Interest 1864 a Mile.
The outstanding fixed charge interest obligations under the plan would be $78,585,000, or $38,635 a mile with an annual fixed interest charge of $3,792,470, or $1,864 a mile.

Sitting with the Missouri Commission at the hearing were Chairman O. H. Hughes, C. C. Marshall and E. W. Doherty of the Ohio Public Service Commission; O. E. Thompson of the Illinois Commission and L. P. Hemans of the Michigan Railroad Commission.

Hodge, who said he represented owners of $300,000 of stock, objected to the commission giving consideration to the plan of reorganization, holding that the commission would have no jurisdiction over the matter until the new company was actually organized.

He declared that there was nothing before the commission to show that the new company would be organized, in accordance with the proposed plans of reorganization. After his objections had been overruled by Chairman Atkinson, Hodge filed an objection to the commissioners from other states sitting with the Missouri Commission.

Atkinson Overrules Objection.
Chairman Atkinson overruled this objection, and ordered it stricken from the record. He said the commissioners from Ohio, Illinois and Michigan had been invited by the Missouri Commission to sit with it during the hearing. E. M. Zoline of Chicago, who said he was representing the same interests as Hodge, objected to Commissioner Thompson of Illinois sitting with the commission. F. N. Judson appeared as the legal representative of holders of unsecured claims against the Wabash amounting to $65,000, and E. B. Ewing, Assistant Attorney-General, appeared for Attorney-General Barker to represent the interests of the state in the litigation growing out of the controversy over the 2 cents a mile and maximum freight rate laws.

When the objections had been noted, and the appearances of counsel entered, Minnis read to the commission the full report on the plan of reorganization.

$2,500,000 From Gould Interests.
If the plan of reorganization is approved by the commission, the Missouri Pacific, which owns 70,000 shares of stock of the Wabash, on the assessment of $30 a share, would pay $21,000. The Iron Mountain owns more than $5,000,000 of Wabash stock. As the Iron Mountain and Missouri Pacific are controlled by the same interests, the entire contribution to the Wabash reorganization by these properties would be approximately $2,500,000.

Minnis explained to the Commission that the company proposed to take care of the unsecured claims through the issuance of $2,000,000 of adjustment bonds and $2,000,000 of capital stock. The holders of the claims will be given one-half 'n' bonds and one-half in stock. He was asked by the Commissioners what would happen if the owners of the unsecured claims refused to accept the stock and bonds in settlement.

Cites Ruling of Courts.
Minnis said the courts had held that where a fair offer was made in a plan of reorganization the creditor must either accept or be denied the privilege of attacking the plan.

Under the plan of reorganization, Minnis said that $4,085,000 of existing obligations of the Wabash Railroad would remain unsecured.

In addition to the undisturbed obligations, the plan provides for the issuance of $150,000,000 general and refunding mortgage 50-year gold bonds, bearing not more than 5 per cent interest. It is provided that $1,000,000 of bonds will be sold for cash and the money applied toward the cash requirements of the road.

Nemo EASY-FRONT

$5 Value at $3

WHEN more women learn of the wonderful style and comfort of the new Nemo "Easy-Front" Corsets, you'll never hear a saleswoman say:

"Why, the Nemo is only for fat women!"

"Easy-Front" gives the slender woman everything she wants in a corset—light weight, strength, flexibility and up-to-the-minute style.

In material, making and finish, it's a big $5.00 value; but you can't duplicate its splendid service at any price or in any other make.

No. 304 has a low bust, but the Nemo "bridge" effect, which prevents all pressure and "digging in."

The wide gores of thin but strong Lastolux Cloth (semi-elastic) cover gastric and abdominal regions, giving the idealized "nature figure" and full, free breathing.

The skirt is long and flexible—modish in the last degree. For slender to medium figures. Fine Steeltex batiste, lightly boned; sizes 19 to 26—$3.00.

No. 303 is the same, but nearly "topless"—$3.00.

Imitations, made with the same old heavy, stiff, wear-out-quickly elastics, are practically worthless.

BE SURE IT'S AN "EASY-FRONT"

Other splendid models for slender and medium figures include the new

How to Gain Flesh
A simple but sure way to increase the weight, it is asserted by several well-known physicians, is to take regularly for several months, one or two 3-grain hypo-nutrient tablets after each meal. These little tablets have the distinguished merit of increasing the red and white blood corpuscles, aiding digestion and promoting assimilation and absorption of the elements in the food which go to make blood and solid tissues. They are obtainable in sealed packages from physicians and well-stocked apothecary shops. — ADVERTISEMENT.

Item Welcomed By Many Men

This will prove a welcome bit of information for all those who are overworked, gloomy, despondent, nervous and have trembling limbs, heart palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities, insomnia, fear without cause, timidity in venturing and general inability to act naturally and rationally as others do, because the treatment consisting of grain tablets can be obtained and taken without the knowledge of any one. If the reader has any of the symptoms, and decides to try it just go to any large well-stocked drug store and ask for three-grain Cadomene Tablets, and then take according to the directions which accompany each sealed tube. The tonic-invigorating power is soon felt and the joy of a healthy body experienced. These tablets, originally dispensed by prominent physicians and pharmacists, now are packed with full directions for self administration, so that it is wholly unnecessary to pay a physician for prescribing them. — ADVERTISEMENT.

"Six" Makers Are
Returning to "Fours"

THREE BIG MAKERS of "sixes exclusively" have already announced their "fours," and others will soon follow. Something must be wrong. No doubt of it. The "six" is wrong. If it could be made right—made better than a "four"—the Cadillac would now be a "six."

The Cadillac Company has no intention of marketing a six-cylinder car.

You do not buy an experiment when you buy a Cadillac.

Five-passenger touring car, four-passenger phaeton or two-passenger roadster sell for two thousand dollars; seven-passenger, twenty-one hundred dollars, 134-inch wheel base commercial chassis, eighteen hundred and seventy-five dollars. F. O. B. St. Louis.

MRS. SALVETER'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE WITHDRAWN

No Reason Assigned, but It Is Understood There Has Been a Reconciliation.

Mrs. Louisa Dougherty Salveter's divorce suit against Louis L. Salveter was withdrawn in the Circuit Court, Thursday, by her attorney, Alexander Young.

While no reason was assigned for the withdrawal, it was understood there had been a reconciliation. The suit was filed May 1. The plaintiff is Salveter's third wife. In her petition she alleged cruelty. Salveter's home is at 618 Bern avenue.

Membership Buttons Are to Be Given Pure Milk League Workers

HANDSOME buttons, testifying to their wearers' membership in the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk League, now are ready for distribution to all who become league members during the summer of 1914.

They bear the inscription "Post-Dispatch Pure Milk League" and are ornamented with an attractive drawing of the Post-Dispatch Weather Bird in colors and with a bottle of pure milk in its "hand."

Membership in the league is won by helping the league to save the babies.

A membership card also will be sent to all who thus qualify for league membership.

PRESIDENT TO OFFICIATE

American University Will Be Opened Next Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—President Wilson will formally open the new American University here next Wednesday. He will be assisted by Secretaries Bryan and Daniels and church dignitaries.

Already upwards of 1500 applications for enrollment have been received.

CHILDREN PRESENT PLAY ON LAWN TO
SAVE THE BABIES

Its Title Was "Saving the Baby" and It Earned $1.40 for Pure Milk Fund.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Previously acknowledged.....$282.93

Marie Cantwell Reid, 6327 Berlin avenue and others.....1.40

Six children residing in the West End promptly have qualified for the ownership of Post-Dispatch Pure Milk League buttons and League membership cards by giving an entertainment to help the League save the tenement babies.

These children are Marie Cantwell Reid, Harriet Logan, Marie Lineman, Francis Rice, Margaret Morrell and Barney Teasdale, and their entertainment was given on the lawn at the residence of Marie Cantwell Reid, 6327 Berlin avenue.

They presented a children's playlet entitled, "Saving the Baby"—there's a fine timeliness for you—and they charged an admission price of 2 cents for the seeing of this playlet.

It was a very pretty little drama, quite ably acted by the six children named, and it earned $1.40 for the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund.

Mr. John C. Reid, acting as treasurer for the six children, at once sent the money to the Post-Dispatch, whereupon the Post-Dispatch promptly mailed Pure Milk League buttons and League membership cards to the six children, whose names now are enrolled on the membership list of the Pure Milk League for the summer of 1914.

The Post-Dispatch Weather Bird on the League buttons was in the highest of spirits as it thus started to wing its flight to the six players in the cast of "Saving the Baby."

Nothing puts the Weather Bird in a better humor than these calls for active service in its new capacity as Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to all children who help the Pure Milk Fund to save the babies.

Besides, the choice of the theme and title of the Berlin avenue playlet tickled the Weather Bird mightily—it thought both so "cutely" appropriate.

Who's next now in the good work of getting the Pure Milk Fund's summer campaign of 1914 into full swing?

Win the right to wear the Pure Milk League's badge of honor this summer—the League button with the Weather Bird in colors as its proud and joyous emblem of victory!

The way to win this badge of honor is to enlist in the League and live up to the League slogan:

"Save the babies!"

POLICE RECOVER CHILD
FOR BARONESS VAUGHAN

Leopold's Ex-Wife, Ejected From Divorced Husband's Home, Calls on Authorities.

PARIS, May 21.—At the instance of Baroness Vaughan, who was the leopoldine wife of the late King Leopold of Belgium, the Public Prosecutor today dispatched a large force of police to the residence of Emmanuel Durieux, her divorced husband, whom she charged with assault and abduction.

A violent scene previously had occurred between the Baroness and Durieux, the latter refusing to give up their child, who, according to the terms of the divorce, was allowed to spend one day with him each week.

Baroness was ejected from the house and promptly preferred charges.

The police surrounded Durieux's residence, but he offered no resistance and the child was restored to the Baroness.

MINNESOTA WOODS BURN

Ely, Minn., May 21.—Forest fires that started along the Tamarack River, 10 miles north of here, last night, threaten to sweep the Crane Lake Lumber camp out of existence.

Rangers from Robinson and Ely were called to fight the flames. The Tamarack River bluffs are thought to have been started from brush fires. Men were called from all directions and began building fire breaks and setting counter fires in the path of the flames.

Major Returns to Jefferson City.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 21.—Gov. Major returned today from Bowling Green, Mo., where he went to visit his father, James R. Major, who was reported to be seriously ill. The elder Major is 90 years old. The Governor said his father's illness was caused by grief over the death of his wife a year ago.

U. S. WARSHIP TAKES
98 PASSENGERS OFF
STRANDED STEAMER

By Associated Press.

Galveston, Tex., May 21.—The Norwegian steamship Atlantis, which left Galveston May 19 for Tampico with 98 passengers, is aground 100 miles north of Tampico and today has gone to her rescue. All the passengers have been taken off by the United States battleship Connecticut, according to information received here.

No details of any accident to the Atlantis were given, but wireless messages for tug were urgent and said the steamer was pounding to pieces. The Connecticut received "G. O. S." from the Atlantis at Tampico. Wireless messages brought the news here. It was believed the Atlantis went aground Tuesday night and that the Connecticut reached her early yesterday.

Two wrecking tugs were ordered from Mobile to the steamer's assistance.

Most of the Atlantis' passengers were foreigners who fled from Tampico after Vera Cruz was occupied by the Americans. They were held in Galveston in care of United States immigration authorities, and when Tampico fell into the hands of Constitutionalists started back.

The Atlantis is a 73-ton steamship. Capt. Jensen, plying between Gulf ports.

JUDGE LINDSEY TO TELL ROCKEFELLER OF STRIKE

Brother Says Oil King Wants
First-Hand Information From Colorado Coal Fields.

DENVER, Colo., May 21.—John D. Rockefeller has asked Judge Ben B. Lindsey, who now is in New York, to visit him at Pocantico Hills and give him a complete history of the Colorado coal strike and the Ludlow battle, ac-ording to statements made by Lindsey before he departed for the East. Judge Lindsey said he believed Rockefeller wanted first-hand and unbiased reports of the strike, and that he was confident that when Rockefeller realized the exact conditions there would be orders issued for a speedy settlement of the difficulty.

"I know Ben had a request from Rockefeller to visit him and that he will do so after he has seen President Wilson," said C. A. Lindsey, his brother, today.

Judge Lindsey was severely criticized at a meeting of the Real Estate Exchange, today, for his alleged untruthful statements to Chicago newspapers on the strike situation. A committee was appointed to counteract his statements. Lindsey's alleged Chicago interview said:

"A father who went to the militia camp for his little boy was saluted with the headless corpse of the youngster. Here, take the thing."

PASTOR HOLTON STRONGLY OPPOSES VISIT BY SUNDAY

He Alone, Out of 49 Ministers, Objects to Inviting Spectacular Evangelist.

DISAPPROVES METHODS

Believes Revival Would Result in Setback, Rather Than Aid to Church.

Plans of ministers of Protestant churches of St. Louis and suburbs to invite the evangelist Billy Sunday to conduct revival services in St. Louis met with the opposition of one pastor when it was suggested at a meeting of the ministers Wednesday in the Y. M. C. A. The Rev. Horace F. Holton of the First Congregational Church argued that Sunday should not be invited to hold meetings in St. Louis. He was the only one of 49 ministers present at the meeting to object to the invitation.

Sunday has made it a rule not to visit a city unless virtually all the Protestant ministers unite in the request to him. Why Pastor Holton Objects. The Rev. Mr. Holton told a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday why he was opposed to Sunday's methods. "I did not join in the movement to bring Evangelist Sunday here," he said, "and I will not co-operate in any way in his meetings. I object to his methods, and think that evangelistic methods which stir up a lot of emotional excitement usually result in a setback afterward and make the work of the churches more difficult."

"I have personally studied his work in other cities and my mind is made up that I do not wish to co-operate with him. While I admit that there is a possibility that he reaches some men that the churches do not reach, I am not convinced that in the long run there is an advantage that cannot be attained by the churches."

"I have no complaint against him on the ground that he receives great amounts of money at his meetings. He probably earns what he gets. His financial organization is extremely good and works as well as the coin boxes on the street cars. We all contribute to the street car company, but it is in small amounts which we do not notice. In the aggregate it is a lot of money. That is the way with the money that Sunday gets."

Doesn't Agree With Sunday. "Sunday represents a type of theology which to my mind is not modern. I don't agree with him, and if I endorsed his coming I would have to endorse what he said after he gets here, and I can't do that."

The Rev. Dr. W. J. Williamson of the Third Baptist Church presided at the meeting. The motion to invite Sunday was made by the Rev. John L. Brandt of the First Christian Church, and was seconded by the Rev. Dr. Charles L. Kloss of the Webster Groves Congregational Church. Other ministers participating in the invitation were the Rev. Dr. B. A. Abbott of the Union Avenue Christian Church, the Rev. Dr. B. F. Christman, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church; the Rev. Dr. Grant A. Robbins of Union Methodist Church, the Rev. Dr. W. G. Johnston of the Christian Church and the Rev. Dr. H. H. Gregg of the Washington and Compton Presbyterian Church.

BARONESS "BAB" HAS BRAIN FAG; HALTS CASE

Thinking in German While She Talks English Wears Plaintiff in Hurley Suit.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Ursula Barbara von Kallnowski of Wiesbaden, Germany, who claims $2,500,000, mostly for "wounded feelings," in a suit against Michael J. Hurley of St. Louis halted her examination yesterday by W. Christy Bryn, counsel for Hurley, as she placed her hand to her forehead and refused to answer further questions. "It is a brain fag," the Baronesse replied when the attorney pressed for an explanation.

George Fleming, counsel for the witness, suggested arranging with Federal Judge Mayer some means to permit the examination to go on without aggravating the "brain fag." Judge Mayer was busy, and from noon until 4:30 o'clock the Baronesse paced the corridors outside his chambers, and the lawyers were finally ushered before him.

"Yes, it is brain fag," the Baronesse replied to a question.

"How does that happen?" the Judge asked. "The Baronesse has exerted herself by thinking in German and speaking in English," Attorney Fleming told the Court.

"Does the Baronesse speak a classic German or a dialect?" the Judge asked. "Classic. Your Honor," she said. "I will direct the appointment of an interpreter," said Judge Mayer. The examination was continued today.

MISSOURI WHEAT BADLY DAMAGED BY HESSIAN FLY

Heaviest in Northwestern Counties, Secretary of Board of Agriculture Says.

SPECTS WERE GOOD

Carroll County Yield Cut 62
Per Cent; Fields to Be Planted in Corn.

Hessian fly is causing damage in the northwestern part of Missouri, according to a statement out Wednesday in St. Louis by Mayes of Columbia, Mo., secretary of the State Board of Agriculture.

Hessian fly is always active at season of the year. Sometimes it causes a great deal of damage, and times its activity is confined to the
at the pits of the grain exchanges where used by speculators to advance the of wheat futures.

Mayes finds a real foundation for the fly scare this year. The fly small insect which makes its home in the ears of wheat, and kills the of young wheat, and kills the
at.

According to Mayes, investigators of State Board of Agriculture were sent to Carroll County early in the week, and examined fields there at the of the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce. This investigation, he said, showed that at the beginning of the season there were prospects for a large crop of wheat in Carroll County, but because of the ravages of the Hessian fly, the yield will be only 38 per cent of the expected amount.

The loss of 62 per cent of the crop has been in the last two weeks, he said. Last year Carroll County produced 1,200,000 bushels of wheat.
The outlook is for a yield of only 450,000 bushels, despite a large increase in the acreage.

Despite wild reports, Mayes says he advises farmers not to become exaggerated until each field is examined. Reports, he says, indicate that the fly is not only in spots, and that many fields, even in the infested districts, may be undamaged this season.

Wherever the wheat is found to be infested with Hessian fly, the farmers being advised to plow up the wheat
now corn in its place.

Mayes recommends that winter wheat planted in Missouri should be done late in fall this year, as the Hessian fly gains a foothold in late-planted wheat.

Kelly Wright and T. J. Talbert of State Department of Agriculture are the investigation in Carroll County. B. Hutchinson has reported conditions bad in Nodaway County, and W.
Nelson, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, says that he drove from Carroll to Cooper County to Columbia County recently, and found wheat fields had been destroyed by the Hessian fly.

RT OF U. S. FLEET IS TO LEAVE VERA CRUZ

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt announced this morning that the department is considering a plan to withdraw one division of the fleet at Vera Cruz to give the fleet and marines shore leave.
The heat and routine life have become arduous. It is probable the division will be withdrawn in the next 10 days. It is possible the division will return to Vera Cruz within a few weeks.
Roosevelt will be ordered north.

Roosevelt says the Government will not tolerate a blockade of Tampico.
This Government is extremely anxious to keep the port of Tampico open to commerce. At present there is a danger on the horizon which would lead to believe that any effort would be made to close that port. But if either the Federal or Constitutional authorities try to close it, it would be obvious to this Government, and steps would be taken to keep the port open.
The first steps, of course, would be through diplomatic channels.

ARTHOLDT NOT TO RUN

WASHINGTON, May 21.—In a statement, Representative
Arthur Bartholdt of St. Louis reveals his decision, first announced in December, not to seek re-nomination and re-election for a twelfth term in Congress. The statement is made in reply to the "several" friends, who in general urging him to reconsider, asserted that my re-election would be absolutely assured by an old-time majority. When asked what his reasons are after March 4, Mr. Bartholdt said:

"I shall be as free as a bird in the air, relying on my pen and a little experience saved up for a rainy day subject me."

BOY, 6, SAVED FROM POND

Arthur Garcia, 6 years old, of 215
West Avenue, was rescued from a drowning pond at the foot of Koeln avenue, Wednesday evening, by Frank Garcia and another boy were fishing when the wind blew the cap from head of Garcia's companion. Garcia who was unable to swim, jumped six feet of water to get the cap.
The boy, who was passing the quarry, saw the boy's predicament and jumping into the pond, dragged Garcia to shore.

PRIVATE PARKS SHOT AND BURNED, SAYS KERR

Administration Knows Facts,
Says Man Who Was Vera Cruz
Governor a Few Days.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—"Private Parks was not only shot by a Mexican firing squad, but his body was disemboweled, mutilated and burned.
Moreover, the information has been in possession of the administration at Washington for over a week, and I do not understand what purpose
the administration could have in mind
in suppressing it."

This was the answer to an inquiry about Private Parks given by Robert J. Kerr of Chicago and Mexico, whom Admiral Fletcher appointed Governor of Vera Cruz. Kerr was the Governor until Gen. Funston organized a new Vera Cruz government.

Kerr left Vera Cruz on Tuesday of last week and came to Washington to see the President.

Kerr stated that his personal information about Parks came from an eye-witness. This was a foreigner, not a Mexican, and he could not give his name on account of danger to the individual. He knew the man personally and knew him to be trustworthy, he said.

SEIBERT DIGRESSES TO ATTACK FOLK'S COURSE

Arguing on Taxes, Railway Agent Expresses Fear New Haven Looters Will Escape.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 21.—Col.
James M. Seibert appeared before the State Board of Equalization yesterday to argue against an increase in the assessment of Missouri Pacific Railroad properties in Missouri. He was complaining of the business depression, which, he said, was partly due to attacks made on the railroads.

Attorney-General Barker interrupted him with the question:
"Don't you think the actions of railroad officials themselves, as revealed in the recent exposures of the looting of the New Haven properties, have injured the railroads more than any attacks that have been made on them?"

"Yes," he retorted. "I see that our own great apostle of civic righteousness, Joe Folk, is trying to make himself president by investigating the officers of that road, in spite of the fact that his action will let the men who deserve to be punished go free."

MAN, SKULL CRUSHED, FOUND DEAD IN RIVER

Frisco Time Check in Overalls of Body Taken From Mississippi at Luxemburg.

The body of a man with a crushed skull was found in the Mississippi River at the foot of Mary street, in Luxemburg, by John Powers, a railroad watchman. It apparently had been in the river about a month.

Coroner Bopp of St. Louis County held an inquest. The jury gave a verdict that death was from unknown causes. The body will be held several days at the Hoffmeister Undertaking Co., 7814 South Broadway, pending investigation and identification.

The man was about 45 years old, weighed about 150 pounds, had dark hair, tipped with gray, and a dark-red mustache. He wore overalls and had a Frisco Railroad time check from which the writing had been obliterated by water.

BODY FOUND IN A WELL

Woman's Throat Had Been Cut;
Trail of Blood From Room.

WACO, Tex., May 21.—Mrs. L. B.
Richardson, 67 years old, residing 10 miles north of McGregor, Tex., was found dead with her throat cut, at the bottom of a 40-foot well. The coroner returned a verdict of suicide. Relatives are conducting an investigation.

Tuesday night Mrs. Richardson went to bed, sleeping with her niece, Ethel Piemmons. The niece says she did not know when her aunt got up. A pool of blood was found on the floor in the bedroom. A razor that was in the house was found near by. The tracks led to the well.

many of them have the new wide sashes, too. All sizes, at beginning of the sale tomorrow.

Some of the Reasons for Tomorrow's Unusual Bargain Opportunities

Our buyer was in New York this week and secured almost 25,000 new garments. Suits, coats, dresses, waists, skirts from overstocked manufacturers at price-concessions of 50% to 75% below regular. This enthused him to buy greater quantities—in turn they must be sold. So the startling low prices is the answer.

Women's and Misses' Embroidery Dresses

BIGGEST LINER BREAKS AWAY AT PIER, DRIFTS MILE

Vaterland Carried Out by Tide
After Completing Maiden
Trip, but Is Caught.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Navigation in the North River between New York and Hoboken stood still today, while the Vaterland, biggest ship afloat, defied all efforts to dock her and swept broadside down the stream for more than a mile.

When the liner arrived at her pier after her maiden voyage from Hamburg, her great length and a strong ebb tide proved too strong a combination for the fleet of willing little tugs that urged her toward her berth. For more than three hours the tugs pulled and hauled at the gigantic liner without success.

Once she was almost ready to tie up, when the tide gripped her and dragged her out of the slip. Ferry boats and small craft scurried to safety as the liner floated broadside down the river with 20 tugs circling frantically around. She floated a mile before the tugs got her straightened out, and then she returned under her own steam. The fourth attempt to dock the ship proved successful.

Three thousand persons aboard, impatient to land, had watched the maneuvers without showing alarm, although there were moments when the steamer narrowly missed crumpling the end of a pier. Thousands watched the struggle from the skyscrapers facing the river. Twice the Vaterland's great draft made her scrape bottom. While the contest was in progress, ferry schedules were suspended, and the Atlantic liner Barbarossa was penned in her slip, unable to go to sea. The Vaterland, 920 feet long, dominated the river.

The Vaterland's run yesterday was 294 knots and her average speed an hour was 23.9 knots.

The Vaterland was launched April 2, 1913. She carries one commodore and four captains and a total crew of 1224.

CARD INDEX WILL SHOW EQUIPMENT OF ALL TEACHERS

Supt. Blewett Asks Each for Record of Efforts to Increase Professional Culture.

Public school teachers in the last week have received from Supt. B. N. Blewett a printed folder which requests teachers to indicate their records of professional training and experience, as well as the date of their birth.

A number of teachers have written to the Post-Dispatch requesting information as to the purpose of the "blue card." Some of them stated their records as teachers, their length of service and their grades in examinations are well known to the Board of Education. Therefore, they are wondering why such an intimate personal record is being sought by Supt. Blewett through the medium of the "blue card."

Asks About Foreign Travel.
Among the things Supt. Blewett wishes to know about all his teachers is how much they have traveled abroad for study, culture and recreation. Some teachers, in their letters, wondered if travel abroad would be one of the factors in determining a future promotion in the St. Louis schools.

The "blue card" requires the name of the teacher, his or her scholastic training before and after entering the St. Louis schools, a resume of summer college or university work, resume of training in the St. Louis Normal or Harris Teachers' College, extension course credits at Harris Teachers' College, with the total of credits received there, languages spoken, in addition to English; languages of which they have a reading knowledge only; experience in teaching, in and out of Missouri, and writings of teachers, if any.

Wants Permanent Record.
Supt. Blewett, when asked to explain the purpose of the "Blue Card," told a Post-Dispatch reporter they were for a permanent record in the office of the Board of Education. When promotions are planned the records of teachers set forth in these cards will be one factor in determining the fitness of candidates. Thus far, he said, no record has been kept of professional improvement among teachers.

Supt. Blewett said teachers have written to him telling of their efforts to improve their professional efficiency with the idea of placing themselves on record for advancement from teachers in grade schools to instructors in high schools, or for places outside of the public schools which offered increased emolument.

No record has been kept of these letters. It since has been deemed advisable to have such a record, so a card index system was decided upon. The "Blue Cards" were sent to each school principal to be distributed to each teacher.

Through the card index system, Supt. Blewett said he hoped all teachers would keep him informed of their professional growth and culture and, from year to year, add to the record such information as they wish to have on file for the benefit of the administrative officers.

MURRAY S. NORTHROP
MARRIED IN DETROIT

Weds Girl Whose Dancing Attracted Attention on Visit Here Recently.

Murray S. Northrop, lately of 23 Washington terrace, son of the late Reid S. Northrop, a wealthy manufacturer, was married in Detroit Tuesday to Miss Juliette Smith, who was a guest of the young man's mother, Mrs. Mary Sells Northrop, until last week, and whose dancing at several St. Louis society affairs was greatly admired. The marriage was announced Thursday by the elder Mrs. Northrop, who did not attend the wedding, and did not approve of her son's marrying at this time.

Northrop is 24 years old, and Miss Smith is 20. They met in Detroit, where the young man recently went into the automobile business. He returned recently to aid his mother in the sale of their Washington terrace residence, and Miss Smith was invited to visit Mrs. Northrop.

The young people told several acquaintances here of their intended marriage, and Northrop went Monday night to Detroit for the wedding.

The Northrop family is related to the Goulds of New York. The family fortune was made in the manufacture of railroad refrigerating cars.

BRITON ON WAY TO VISIT BROTHER HERE, DROWNED

The Rev. F. Gowenlock Is Notified of Recovery of Body From the East River.

The Rev. F. Gowenlock, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, Ferguson, received information Thursday that the body of his brother, Edgar Gowenlock of London, England, had been taken from the East River at New York.

Edgar Gowenlock was on his way to St. Louis to visit his brother. He arrived in New York three weeks ago, and telegraphed that he was coming on here. When the Rev. Gowenlock learned that his brother had disappeared in New York, he went there, and was told that he had been last seen walking along the bank of the East River. The minister returned to St. Louis.

The body was identified by the Rev. Walter E. Bentley, pastor of the Church of the Ascension, New York. It will be brought to St. Louis for interment. How he was drowned was not learned.

Miscellaneous Charge Dropped.
ST. PETERSBURG, May 21.—The charge of "ritual murder" in connection with the killing on Dec. 8 last of Tshel Pashin at Pascoff, 40 miles from Kiev, was abandoned today by the Public Prosecutor. The authorities of the Kiev district, after investigation, decided the murder was an ordinary crime.

CITY HALL EMPLOYEE IS FOUND DEAD FROM GAS

William H. Neun of Recorder's Office Killed Accidentally, His Wife Believes.

William H. Neun of 3635 Connecticut avenue, 55 years old, a comparer in the Recorder of Deeds' office, was found dead in his bed, from gas asphyxiation, at 8 a. m. Thursday. His wife, Mrs. Lillian Neun, who found the body, told Dr. Keeble, the family physician, that one of the windows in the room was partly raised, and that the door into his room was unlocked. For these reasons she believed the fatality was accidental.

When policemen called, Mrs. Neun and others at the house were reluctant to make any statement. On their third visit, the policemen were told that Mrs. Neun was seriously ill with diabetes, and that Neun had occupied a room by himself, retiring at 8 p. m. Wednesday. Neun had a son and three daughters. He owned the house in which he lived, and was considered in good circumstances. He was not at his work Wednesday, according to Recorder Jov. He had been employed in the Recorder's office seven years.

To Put on Flesh and Increase Weight

A Physician's Advice

Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all a matter of what this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Thin folks stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffed won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay" there pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something, too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition I always recommend a patent tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe, a patent. It is a scientific combination of six of the most effective and powerful food building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by J. Edgar Doherty, West Drug Co., Babcock, West-Vilson Co., Johnson Bros. and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back—ADY.

MORGAN LOSES CONTROL OF OHIO PHONE LINES

Consolidated Companies to Be Ruled by Residents of State; Will Compete With Bell.

COLUMBUS, O., May 21.—Full details of the proposed merger of the United States Telephone Co. and 14 other independent telephone concerns in Ohio were made public today.

The consolidated company will be called the Ohio State Telephone Co. The outstanding capitalization will be $23,000,000. Samuel G. McMen, president of the Columbus Railway and Light Co., will be president and directing head.

The control of the new company will pass from J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York, according to Frank A. Davis, president of the United States Telephone Co., who said that a strong syndicate of Ohio people will acquire more than a majority of the capital stock. This is taken to mean that there no longer is a possibility of merger of independent telephone interests with the Bell company and that from now on there will be intense rivalry in the telephone field.

$4,573,136 ASKED FOR EXPENSES OF MEXICO MOVEMENT

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The urgent deficiency appropriation bill, making provision for more than $6,000,000 for the present fiscal year, largely on account of the Mexican crisis, was before the House today.

An interesting statement had been prepared by the War Department to show exactly the approximate amount of the deficiencies in appropriations of the Quartermaster's Department of the army, due to the Mexican situation to June 30, next. This made a total of $4,573,136. It includes $1,100,149 for subsistence, $1,428,070 for transportation of the army, both along the border and to Mexico, and numerous other items relating to pay on account of increased strength of the army by reason of the Mexican trouble. The Government already is obligated for $1,634,862.

The figures showed that fitting up chartered ships for troops and animals cost $110,000. For horsehoes and mules along the hill carries $25,000. The chartering of the steamers Sallilla and San Marcos to June 30, cost $21,500, and for chartering of additional steamers to June 30, $270,500 was asked. Altering the transport McClellan for cold storage cost $40,000.

The movement of troops to the Mexican border during the month of April cost $155,507.

AMBASSADOR FEARS FOR SPANIARDS IN MEXICO

Discusses Situation With Bryan but Admits There Is No Immediate Remedy.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Mr. Riano, the Spanish Ambassador, today called on Secretary Bryan and discussed the situation which, it is feared, may arise out of threats of the Constitutionalists against Spanish citizens in Mexico. The case of the Spanish cotton growers, whose crops were seized by Villa's forces, also was taken up.

Ambassador Riano declared that he considered the Mexican situation from the point of view of the Spaniards, exceedingly menacing, but that he could see no way of dealing with the subject at present. The State Department gave assurances that everything possible would be done to protect the Spaniards, in case Villa's threats were carried out.

Coke Production Breaks Record. WASHINGTON, May 21.—All records for production of coke in the United States were broken in 1913 when the total output was 43,311,899 short tons, valued at $12,361,625, according to the Geological Survey. Last year's production was greater by 1,377,000 short tons than that of 1912, which was the previous high record year.

$100,000 LOSS IN LUMBER YARD FIRE; TWO FIREMEN HURT

Crowd Watches Spectacular All-Night Blaze at the Boeckeler Lumber Co.

A fire which started at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday and burned all night, destroyed about 4,000,000 feet of lumber in the yard of the Boeckeler Lumber Co., at Hall and Mallinckrodt streets, causing damage estimated by officials of the company at $100,000. Two firemen were injured and several others overcome by smoke.

A still alarm was telephoned from the lumber company's office and this was followed by a general alarm as the fire spread through the big yards. The fire is supposed to have started in a drying shed.

After dark the fire became a brilliant spectacle which attracted persons from all parts of North St. Louis. A great crowd viewed the fire from the McKinley Bridge.

Henry A. Boeckeler, president, and William L. Boeckeler, treasurer, of the company, remained on the scene all night. They gave out the estimates on the loss early Thursday, when the fire apparently was under control.

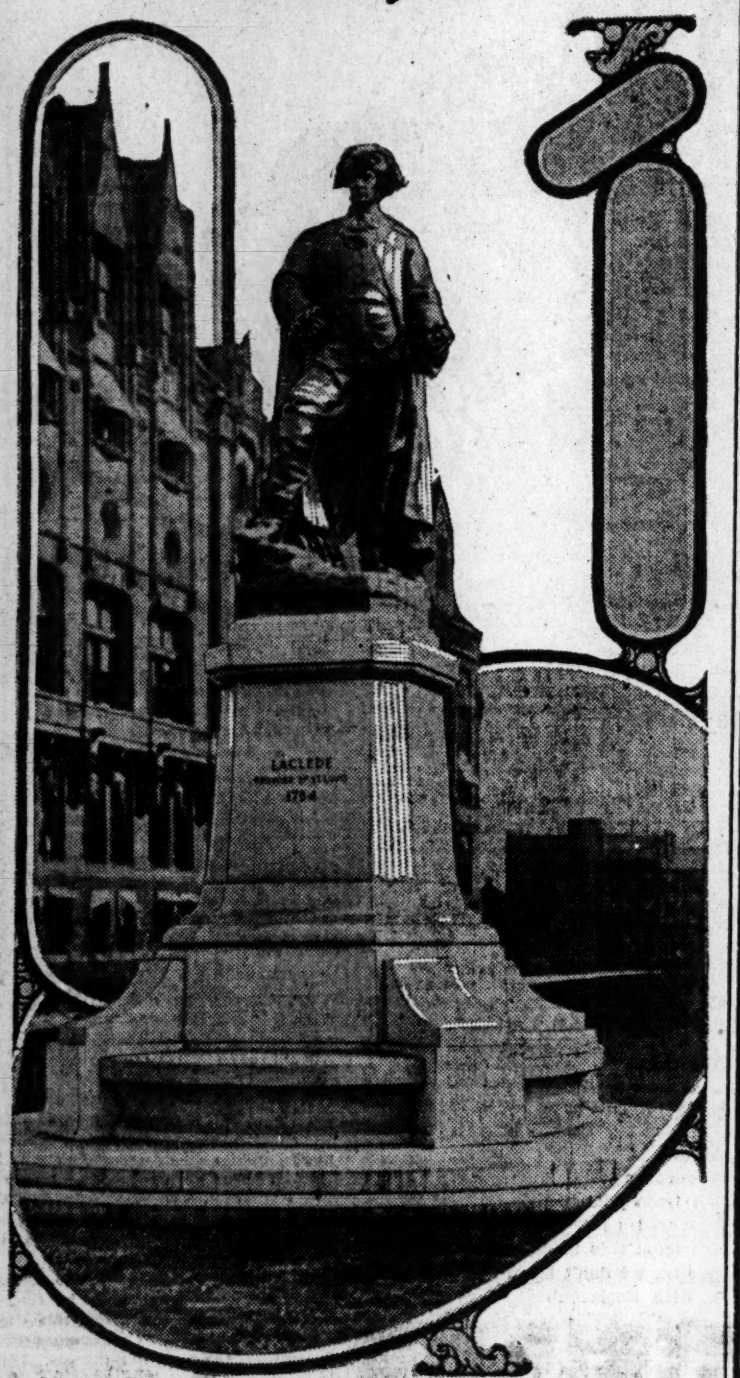

Capt. Joseph O'Brien of Engine Company No. 2 was struck by a board which fell from the top of the drying shed. Two of his ribs were fractured.

Joseph McKenzie, 7 years old, of 2958 Sullivan avenue, fell from the McKinley bridge approach while watching the fire. He landed on a pile of loose cinders and his only injury was a scratch on the arm.

Across the street from the lumber yard on the east is the plant of the National Ammonia Co., where 2,000,000 pounds of ammonia were stored in tanks. Employees of the company braved the intense heat and opened valves at the tops of the tanks to relieve the pressure. It was feared that the heat of the fire would expand the ammonia and cause the tanks to burst.

Trains of box cars in the railroad yards adjoining the lumber company's plant delayed the firemen and made it difficult to run hose lines into the lumber yard.

Laclede Statue Placed in the City Hall Park

Formal Dedication and Unveiling Will Be Held on May 30 in Pageant Week.

For the second time in his eventful career, Pierre Liguist Laclede has come to anchor at St. Louis. If the anchor chains don't slip he will stay where he is a long time.

After spending the winter in the basement of the city jail, he came out for a breath of spring air Wednesday afternoon. Before he had a chance to walk around and see how the city which he founded has grown he was seized and placed on a pedestal in the park between the city hall and the Municipal Courts Building.

The Laclede statue was designed by George Julian Zolnay, St. Louis sculptor, who went to the home of the Laclede family in France for the purpose of obtaining data as to how the founder of St. Louis looked and what kind of clothes he wore.

The costume on the statue is said to be historically correct, though it would not be worn in these modern days except to a fancy dress ball or in the St. Louis Pageant and Masque.

Laclede's statue will be formally unveiled and dedicated May 30, the event being part of the Pageant week program.

YOUTH GETS LIFE TERM FOR KILLING GIRL OF 16

Missourian, Who Also Wounded Young Woman's Mother, Pleads Guilty.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 21.—Marion Branstetter, 22 years old, who killed his 16-year-old friend, Gertrude Griffith, at Marionville, May 7, when she was returning home from church with another youth and her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Griffith, was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary today after he had pleaded guilty of first degree murder.

He shot the girl three times. The mother, who had objected to Branstetter's attention to her daughter, also was wounded. She is recovering slowly.

Branstetter fled, but was captured 12 hours later at Aurora.

3 HORSES DIE IN FIRE

Hay and Grain Store and Stables Destroyed; Loss $9000.

Fire destroyed the hay and grain store and stables of E. H. Kuhlman, 524 Bremen avenue, Tuesday night, with loss estimated at $9000, partly covered by insurance. Three horses were burned to death.

The fire started in the stables. Joseph Shea of 402 Pleasant street, turned in an alarm, but by the time the fire engines arrived, the flames had spread to the store, a one-story frame structure. Chris Rudolph, a stableman, was painfully burned.

ROOSEVELT BUYS WEDDING CLOTHES; PLANS BUSY DAY

"Togs" Himself for Son's Marriage and Makes Four Other Appointments.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Col. Roosevelt arrived in town today to spend his first day in New York in seven months. There was no one with him but the chauffeur in the automobile that left Oyster Bay at 8:30. This first day in the city he desired to be alone, the Colonel said. Accordingly he would give out no information as to just how he would spend his time or where he would be.

He did say, however, that he expected to spend a great part of the day buying clothes for his son's wedding. When the task of "toggling himself out" was finished, he planned to see his publishers, meet a number of Progressive leaders and visit the American Museum of Natural History.

Late in the afternoon he intended to go to his editorial offices. He proposed to journey back to Oyster Bay at 4:30.

Roosevelt's Companions Describe Terrible of Brazilian Trip.

NEW YORK, May 21.—That the discovery by Col. Roosevelt of the River Duvida was not accomplished without great danger to himself and members of his party was testified to yesterday by George K. Cherry and Leo E. Miller, members of the staff of the American Museum of Natural History, who accompanied him. While supervising the unpacking of trophies of their trip the explorers told employees of the museum of their experiences and Cherry, who accompanied Col. Roosevelt on the trip down the Duvida, related how the party subsisted on what he called a "monkey diet" in the weeks when they faced starvation.

Cherry avoided mentioning many incidents of the trip, preferring, he said, to let Col. Roosevelt tell of his discovery before the National Geographic Society in Washington next Tuesday. Cherry said his experiences as a member of the Roosevelt party was the most eventful and hazardous in his 25 years of exploration. "I would never take the same trip again," he said. "This is how dangerous I consider it." The explorer admitted that Col. Roosevelt had been dangerously ill and that his fever at one time had been up to 106 degrees. Cherry and Miller have been invited by Col. Roosevelt to accompany him to Washington when he lectures there on Tuesday.

KING SEES ARREST OF MRS. PANKHURST AND HER DAUGHTER

LONDON, May 21.—King George today witnessed from a window of Buckingham Palace the arrest of Sylvia Pankhurst and her mother, leaders of a procession of suffragists that tried to present a petition to him. Forty arrests were made.

The skirmish between the police and the women at the gates of Green Park was lively. Mrs. Pankhurst, surrounded by several hundred suffragettes, held in reserve.

emerged from a residence opposite the park, and attempted to lead them to the palace. The women, armed with sticks, fought the police. Several were injured.

The raiders dispersed, but left Mrs. Pankhurst and several of her lieutenants, whom the police arrested. The women's clothing was torn in the struggle. Policemen also were injured. The ambulance corps attended the injured women, and removed several who had fainted.

James Park and the grounds of Buckingham Palace were crowded with police from an early hour this morning. The mobilization of 1500 men having been ordered to oppose the suffragettes. The police formed a complete ring around the palace and its grounds, as the women had threatened to scale the high walls. All the detectives from police headquarters at Scotland Yard were on duty and 1000 patrolmen were held in reserve.

Josephine Doesn't Go

After Her Load of Furniture Turns Over She Decides to Stay and Wed the Man She Wants.

By Henry Gallup Paine.

FOR months Walter had been a less and less satisfactory lover. He had quite suddenly dropped the subject of the house. If Josephine spoke of it, he seemed uneasy and turned the conversation into other channels. Naturally, Josephine ceased to talk about it; and equally naturally she did a great deal of thinking, the burden of which was—again naturally—that Walter probably regretted having committed himself so far. Then rumors came to her ears that Walter had been doing well in his business; yet he had said nothing to her about that, and had even hinted at his being rather hard pushed for money. Moreover it was evident to her keen sensibilities that he was concealing something from her. She felt that she no longer had his complete confidence. He was so interested in watching the progress of the building, which was in a large town several miles distant, that he was often away, and saw less and less of her as the house neared completion.

At last, she could stand the strain of the situation no longer. If Walter was not man enough to make the break when he obviously cared no more for her, she was woman enough. The letter which Walter crushed in his hand, as he sat on the nail keg in the dark, stated briefly but comprehensively that all was over between them, and that Josephine had already started, indefinitely, "for the West," to become a trained nurse.

Suddenly Walter was startled by a crash.

The cause of the noise proved to be a large covered wagon which had fallen into an excavation made by the water company directly in front of the door. Walter hastily lit the lantern which he had brought to hang out as a warning, and jumped to the rescue. The wagon was crowded to the roof with all sorts of household furniture, bound for an auction house, and had split entirely in two, exposing its contents to a storm which was rapidly approaching.

Throwing off his coat he assisted the driver in carrying the furniture into the house. Half instinctively, and half from a curiosity to place the various articles, so far as he could judge by the faint rays of the lantern, in their appropriate rooms. Two or three times in the course of their hurried work he thought that there was something familiar in the aspect of some of the larger pieces, but it was not until the load was entirely stowed under shelter and the driver had departed with his team for the stable, that he was able to take in the fact that his house was actually filled with Josephine Merrihew's household belongings.

Walter Wagstaff sat on a nail keg in his just finished and unfurnished house, uncomfortable, cheerless and alone, and calling himself names that would not look well in print.

He loved Josephine Merrihew dearly and had wanted to marry her all the time. He wanted to marry her now—and that was what made the satire of the situation so infernally grim as he lingered lonely, while the twilight deepened, in the empty house he had designed to live with her, and crumpled in his hand the letter in which she told him that she was going away, and never expected to see him again.

They had never been regularly engaged, yet they and everyone who knew them expected them to marry. In fact, over a year ago they had decided on exactly the kind of house they would like to live in. Walter had drawn the general plan, and Josephine had cut out generous slices of the large rooms for closets.

About this time Walter made a few thousand dollars in a fortunate business venture, enough to build the house, and to have something left over for other business ventures.

He made up his mind to build the house, but without saying a word to Josephine either about it or his good fortune. Then, when the house was entirely completed, he was going to "spring it on her." She would choose the furniture and they would get married and move in.

Now, however, he was beginning to realize what kind of a time Josephine had been having. Josephine was an orphan and she had inherited the family homestead and a large mortgage. Some ungenerous cousins had consented to work, the farm, pay the interest and board Josephine; and every night when she went to bed she wondered if she could stand the combination for another day.

The realization struck him all of a heap. It seemed to him that he was working out a weird sort of penance for his thoughtless conduct, and yet there was a certain melancholy satisfaction as well.

When his work was done, the first rays of the dawn were coming in through the east windows. Then, as he surveyed the rooms all set in order, they seemed to be permeated with the spirit of the owner, and he knew that he could never allow them to be taken away.

The driver had told him that they were to be sold, as the owner was giving up her home. It only remained for Walter to buy them anonymously at a liberal price, and then to lock the house up and to keep it a memorial to his shattered hopes.

At 8 o'clock he went to the storage warehouse to clinch the bargain, and his determination. The proprietor stated that the lady was waiting for the proceeds of the sale to enable her to start on her journey.

"Indeed," he added, as he signed the receipt, "you will probably find the lady at your house, as she has just heard of the sale, and has gone to look after her things."

Walter had been somewhat noted as a sprinter in his younger days, but he probably made record time that morning in getting back to the house. And Josephine did not go out West after all.

spite of all he could do, and Jamie turned his face away and cried. Even the doctors, accustomed as they were to suffering and sorrow, felt a lump in their throats.

"Cheer up, kid," said the older doctor, "and come with me, you shall have that chair, and it will not cost you a penny."

He took Jamie into a room where there were many chairs on wheels and after looking them over, he rolled one toward Jamie. "There you are," he said, "that one is strong. Will you take it along with you or will you send the express?"

"I will take it with me," said Jamie, "but how can I ever pay you?"

"By bringing your sister here tomorrow and letting me see her. I may be able to help her," the doctor replied. Jamie's eyes spoke the gratitude he felt, as he looked into the doctor's face. "I do not know what to say," he said, "but I will bring Katie."

Jamie took Katie to see the doctor, and while he was not able to cure her lameness, he helped her so much that she was able to walk, and with aid of a crutch she could walk as fast as anyone.

The doctor kept Katie at the hospital a long time and Jamie was given work there so he could be with her. Jamie studied every spare minute he had and went to night school and when

Katie was able she learned to sew and supported herself.

ANOTHER SANDMAN STORY WILL BE PUBLISHED TOMORROW.

No fewer than thirty-four men can find standing room in one of the dippers of the new Panama Canal dredges that are now being completed. Three dippers of each of these mammoth dredges measure no less than 10 feet 9½ inches in height from the bottom band to the upper edge of their manganese steel lips. They have a capacity of fifteen cubic yards, and it is expected that each dredge, which has a displacement of 1500 tons, will be able to excavate about three hundred thousand cubic yards a month in actual operation on the isthmus. The dredges are designed to dig to a depth of fifty feet.

Straight From the Shoulder

Success Talks to Young Men.

Patience. PATIENCE often has been called a virtue. Be that as it may, certainly it is an asset to any young man who has his road before him. Storming the citadel of success is not often a short, sharp, decisive battle. More often it is a slow and discouraging siege.

And early discouragement spikes the siege guns. No, there is a better way of putting it; patience is the ammunition for the siege guns; and when you exhaust patience you exhaust your ammunition and your campaign is without hope of success.

A goal that is worth attaining is not only worth fighting for—it is worth waiting for—so long as you keep on hustling while you wait. It is worth repeated efforts. It is worth being placed above petty difficulties and discouragement, nay, above BIG difficulties and discouragements.

It is the things a young man learns to bear that strengthen him most—for more than the things that give way before him.

A wall is built one stone at a time. Each stone must be made secure in its place. Dumped impatiently in a disordered heap, no wall can rise above them, for there is nothing to give it stability.

Be patient even in the little detail work of career building. Realize that duties impatiently skipped or skimmed in your foundation work limit the height to which your wall can rise.

Steadiness rather than speed, firmness rather than haste. Lay your stones with the mortar of patience. It takes nature centuries to produce a diamond—yet observe the finished result! Where nature takes centuries, you, at least, can afford to take days, or weeks, or even months. Better to produce a "diamond" than a paste imitation. Isn't it?

More than 400,000 acres of land in Oregon will be thrown open to settlers in June.

Holland still retains land at the rate of between 30,000 and 35,000 acres a year.

Insanity, which is frequently the result of over-indulgence in drink, has increased 7.1 per 100,000 in the eight prohibition states, while for the entire country the increase is 4.4. Maine, the banner prohibitionist state of the union, shows an increased insanity population of 21.3 per 100,000, while Nebraska, a "wet" state, shows a decrease of 27.4.

Alberta has a land area of 141,871,900 acres.

The War of the Revolution employed 306,781 American soldiers, the War of 1812 678,622 troops, while 111,250 Americans served in the Mexican War, and 2,722,608 in the Civil War. The United States mobilized 274,717 troops for the war with Spain, but only about 60,000 were actually employed.

Jamie's Sacrifice

Sandman Story of a Brave Boy Who Did Everything to Aid His Lame Sister.

By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

JAMIE was but 10 years old, but he had the cares of a man upon his little shoulders. He had a little sister, Katie, who was a year younger and a cripple. Jamie's mother and father were dead.

Jamie sold papers and worked for the grocer between times. In this way he managed to get food for himself and Katie and give the landlord something for the dingy little room in which they lived.

Katie was a brave little girl and day after day she sat alone in the little room waiting for Jamie to come home and move her.

She could not walk and they were too poor to have a wheel chair, so that when Jamie put her in the chair by the window she had to sit there until he returned at night.

One night when he had one paper left, he glanced at the headlines as he held it out to the passerby and his eyes happened to fall on these words: "The only hope for him now is the grafting of skin."

Jamie read what was printed under the lines and found that a very rich man who had met with an accident had only one chance to recover, and the skin to be used must be from a young and healthy person. Then he read that they would pay a big price to the right one.

Someone bought his last paper and Jamie ran three blocks and stopped in front of a large building. He hesitated, then he walked up the steps and opened the door.

"I want to see the doctor," he told the man who asked what he wanted. Jamie was shown into a room and a little, serious-looking man asked if he were sick. Jamie told him he was not, but he had come to offer his skin to save the man who was sick.

The doctor looked at him a minute. "It will hurt," he said, "and your arm will have to be bandaged for a long time."

"I shall not mind that," answered Jamie. "If I can go home."

The doctor asked about his father and mother, and Jamie told him the story; he wanted the money for a chair for Katie's birthday.

"You are a brave little fellow," said the doctor. "I will see what I can do for you." Then he took Jamie to another room and examined his blood.

"Come in the morning," he said, "and if you have not changed your mind we will take the skin."

Jamie went home with a light heart, for he felt sure of the chair, and the next morning he was up bright and early to sell his paper, and then he went to the hospital.

The doctor he saw the day before took him to another doctor. "This is the boy," he said, "who wants to sell his skin."

"He's too young," said the second doctor; "the S. P. C. A. would get after us if we took the skin from this boy." Jamie's eyes filled with tears, and he swallowed hard to keep back the sob that came in his throat, for he saw the chair and all his dreams of taking Katie to the park on Sundays vanish.

The old doctor saw the tears and asked: "Why are you so anxious to sell your skin, youngster?"

Jamie wiped his eyes with the back of his hand, and swallowed hard again. "It is Katie's birthday," he said, "and she has never seen the park or anything; she is lame, and I wanted to get her a chair on wheels, but I can't do it if you won't buy my skin."

The disappointment mastered him in

BODY HELD TILL MOTHER OBTAINS FUNERAL MONEY

Burial in Potter's Field Awaits 2-Year-Old Son Unless Woman Obtains Funds.

Mrs. Mary Ann Walker of 1677 Meridian street is seeking funds to bury her 2-year-old son, Robin, who died of pneumonia at the city hospital Tuesday. The hospital authorities have promised to hold the body a week to give her a chance to arrange for the burial. Otherwise it will be buried in the potter's field.

A month ago, Mrs. Walker's husband, William, left her, telling her he was going to his former home in North Carolina for money. She has not heard from him since.

While returning from the hospital a week ago last Tuesday, after a 12-hour vigil at the bedside of her son, Mrs.

Walker fell from the step of a street car, and was injured. She received $10 damages from the railway company for her injuries. This was spent for food and clothing for herself and three children, whose ages range from six months to 5 years.

PAGEANT BAND OF 80 PIECES HOLDS FIRST REHEARSAL

Eight Compositions of Noel Poepping for Special Parts Are Tried Out.

CHORUS TO MEET TONIGHT

Singers Will Practice at Soldan High School Auditorium.

The first rehearsal of the Pageant band of 80 pieces, which is to furnish the instrumental music for the Pageant and Masque of St. Louis in Forest Park, May 23-31, was held Thursday morning at 3335 Pine street, the headquarters of the Musicians' Union.

Noel Poepping, leader of the band, said that in scope and variety of instrumentation the band was the most notable ever assembled in St. Louis. A large saxophone, played by Louis Knittel, will render material assistance on the bass end of the music. This saxophone was sent here from Germany 10 years ago as a World's Fair exhibit, and Poepping bought it.

Eight pieces of music for the Pageant have been composed by Poepping. These are the prelude, the torchlight procession, the departure of soldiers for the Civil War, the gavotte for the Lafayette scene, the bulletins of war and of peace, the return of the battery, and the return of the wounded and prisoners.

The march of the pioneers, which has an important place in the Pageant, was composed by E. R. Kroeger. The music of the Masque was all composed by Frederick S. Converse.

Chorus to Rehearse Tonight.

Frederick Fischer, leader of the chorus, will conduct the band in the chorus numbers, and Poepping will be the conductor for the instrumental numbers.

The chorus will rehearse at Soldan High School auditorium Thursday night, and again Saturday night. There are several hundred members, and Fischer announces that those who get away from the Thursday and Saturday rehearsals will be dropped.

The combined rehearsal of the chorus and the band, which will be at 3 p. m. Sunday, will give the public its first opportunity to hear the music of the Pageant and Masque as a whole. The rehearsals of actors, which are going on nightly, are largely attended, and some 2000 persons were in the seats Wednesday night.

George W. Simmons, chairman of the Seating Committee, announced Thursday that the $1 and $1.50 seats and the boxes for the first two performances of the Pageant and Masque, Thursday and Friday, May 23 and 24, were nearly all sold, and that those for the third performance, Saturday, were about two-thirds sold. The seat sales for the performance of Sunday, May 31, have not been large thus far.

The cheaper seats, at 50 and 25 cents, have not sold as well as the more expensive ones, and it is anticipated that the largest sale of these will be at the grounds.

The name of Frank A. Ruf, most recent donor of $10 to the Pageant, has been added to the Roll of Honor.

Arkansas Man to Take a Part. Fay Hempstead of Little Rock, grand secretary of the Arkansas Masonic Grand Lodge, and a great-grandson of Stephen Hempstead, a prominent St. Louisan of nearly 100 years, will take part in the Lafayette scene of the Pageant. Hempstead wrote to the committee that, as his great-grandfather rode in the carriage with Gen. Lafayette, from the steamboat landing to the Chouteau residence, he would be willing to play his ancestor's part. If the ride should be re-enacted. As the ride is not to be shown, he was invited to take another part in the scene, and he accepted.

Buyer Gets Verdict For $3606 AGAINST BARR CO.

Discharged Because He Accepted Presents From Firm He Bought Goods From.

A verdict of $3606.39 was awarded to Ernest H. Wade of Rochester, N. Y., former buyer for the old William Barr Co., by a jury in Circuit Judge Fisher's court, Wednesday. He alleged breach of contract. The plaintiff, in his petition, said he contracted to serve a year, from Feb. 1, 1908, a buyer at $2000 a year, and after serving six months he was discharged. He sued for $2738.35. Testimony showed Wade had been employed by the company since 1908 under contracts made each year.

The company alleged his contract was terminated because the management learned that a toy company in New York, from which Wade bought goods for the St. Louis store, had made presents to him and his wife. Wade admitted he received a pair of cuff buttons and a box of cigars for himself, a necklace for his wife and toys for his nephew.

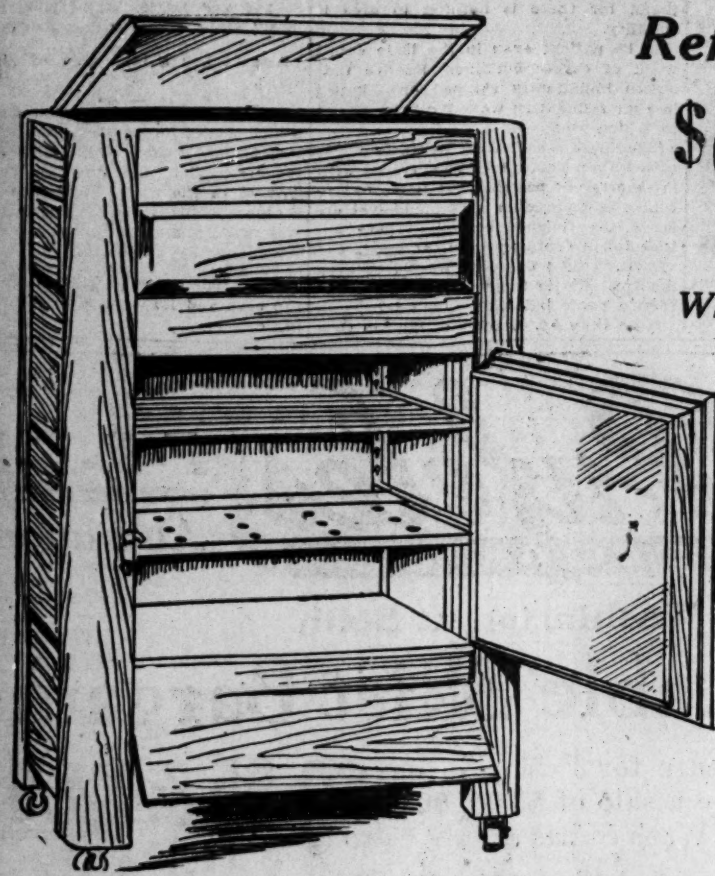

The case had been tried twice. At the first hearing there was a verdict for $2731.42. It was reversed by the Court of Appeals.

KROGER FOR QUALITY

Catarrh is Often Deep Seated

Local Congestions May Indicate Much Internal Inflammation.

Just because catarrh affects the nose and throat, few people realize how deep seated it may be. It is a disease of the bronchial tubes and settles down into the lungs. The way to treat catarrh is to recognize the fact that it is in the blood. There is only one blood purifier that can be safely used. It is S. S. S. and there is no more powerful, the most assimilative blood remedy known today, for it is not a mineral, but a vegetable remedy.

The medicinal components of S. S. S. are relatively just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritive properties of the grains, meats, sugars and fats of food. Any local irritating influence in the blood is rejected by the tissue cells and eliminated by reason of the stimulating influence of S. S. S.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that grows into complete catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a vegetable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseases of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write to Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 533 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Carefully avoid any and all substitutes for S. S. S. There is nothing "just as good."—ADV.

PASTOR PREDICTS THE GOSPEL WILL CURB AGITATORS

Sermons Will Arrest Discontented Who Interrupt Services, Presbyterian Moderator Says.

By Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—Declaring that "delegations or discontented people will keep on coming to the churches to disturb worship until after a while they will be arrested by the message they hear instead of by the police," the Rev. J. S. Lyons of Louisville, Ky., in the moderator's sermon before the Presbyterian General Assembly here today, made a strong plea for higher vision. He spoke from the text, "Where there is no vision the people perish."

"If the church," he said, "is equal to the opportunity of today many who make malicious assaults upon it will find themselves breaking into the kingdom of heaven."
The Rev. Mr. Lyons said that the church can well afford to invest its every energy in a mighty campaign for an effective evangelistic forward movement. "We are of the world," he declared, "and we are turning to the world with a new willingness to know what the remedy is."

"Men and brethren," the Rev. Mr. Lyons said, "bear with me while I voice the conviction: That the Christians of the Apostolic Age who swept through the world with the blood of Christ and the fire of the Holy Ghost, had an experience and an equipment which is sorely lacking in the church today; that an ever increasing multitude of our membership is studying anew the character of the Holy Scriptures with the purpose of getting back to the simplicity and power of the early church; that their hearts are stirring and burning within them; so that they hasten the coming again of the days of the Son of Man upon earth."

Mexican Policy Upheld.
The report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions presented to the Assembly upheld the policy of the national administration at Washington in the Mexican situation and made an appeal that intervention in Mexico take the form of Christian instruction rather than the force of arms. The committee asked an appropriation of $270,000 to carry on another year's work on the present basis.

LONDON HEARS PRINCESS MARY WAS ARRESTED

Is Said to Have Been Mistaken for a Suffragette by Aldershot Sentry.

LONDON, May 21.—According to an undated report, Princess Mary was arrested recently as a suffragette, while at Aldershot with the King and Queen.

The Princess went, before breakfast, to the aviation field to take photographs. The public is excluded, and the sentry arrested the Princess. He refused to believe her when she revealed her identity. She was detained 15 minutes until a passing officer who knew her, protested. He escorted her home.

MILLIONAIRE TOTES HOD

Him and Contractor Work When Building Laborers Strike.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., May 21.—Gen. Russell Frost, reputed to be a millionaire, and who is a former commander of the Connecticut National Guard, knows what it is to carry the hod. The mason's helpers working on his hotel here struck today, leaving that building chimneyless. Gen. Frost and Contractor McMahon shouldered hods and supplied the bricks until the job was finished. Gen. Frost's demeanor has been called "aristocratic." It helped to defeat him last fall, when he ran for Mayor of Norwalk.

TRAIN HURTS WORKMEN

Employers Refuse to Give Names of Injured to Police.

The police Thursday were trying to obtain the names of several men who were injured Tuesday when a traveling serial train, hung on cables, fell a distance of 20 feet on the Union avenue viaduct in course of construction between Birch and Brown avenues. The police learned the train fell upon employees of the Fruit-Cotton Construction Co., in charge of the work, and that the injured were treated by Dr. John P. Stein of 5544 Goodfellow avenue.

The Jarr Family

By ROY L. MCCORDELL.

Mr. Jarr Is to Be Court-Martialed.

HERE is only one thing to be done," said Capt. Herbert Tynnefoyle, "hold a court-martial!"

Capt. Tynnefoyle, now that prospects of war with Mexico were in abeyance, had returned from his strategic military position on the Kokuk Dam, where, at the first landing of American troops at Vera Cruz, Capt. Tynnefoyle had stationed himself, prepared to repel Huerta.

"I could serve sandwiches and salad and we could have claret punch, with dancing afterwards," suggested Mrs. Jarr, and then she burst into tears.

"No, I couldn't have claret punch, especially if the court-martial should declare Mr. Jarr guilty and order him shot at sunrise, or something dreadful like that," she whimpered, "because, you know, Mr. Jarr detests claret punch, and every time we have any social affairs he begs me not to make it, but everybody has claret punch, and it's not so very cheap either, I don't care what he says!"

"The court-martial should be followed by a military hop," said Capt. Tynnefoyle, "and I would suggest that we hold both affairs at the armory of my regiment, the Rosemary Grays. The regiment disbanded when it was learned that we might be expected to go to Mexico, for the Rosemary Grays will never fight on foreign soil. We will fight in our armory or nowhere!"

"But why do you think Mr. Jarr should be court-martialed?" asked Mrs. Jarr. "He isn't a military man. But still, it would be grand, even if he isn't acquitted, because we could have dancing afterwards, and a dance always looks so fine when there are soldiers present in uniform, and all the Rosemary Grays dance so beautiful."

"First in war, first in peace and first in the modern dances!" murmured Capt. Tynnefoyle. "But it's my opinion," he went on, "that this enigma we are all endeavoring to solve, the words 'Mr. Jarr is to be court-martialed' is a cipher code. Mr. Jarr could be tried by court-martial for aid and comfort to the enemy."

"I suppose so," replied Mrs. Jarr, sadly. "But he declares he doesn't know what it means. He says that while he was traveling on business for the firm his employer wrote him to look after a young sister of Fritz, the firm's shipping clerk. This young person was to get on the train at Omaha. She proved, so Mr. Jarr declares, to be a side-show freak, a fat lady, and at Chicago she left Mr. Jarr to join a musical comedy in which she received an offer to play the part of a full chorus, taking the place of eight girls."

"I would believe Mr. Jarr in everything he says, but at this point he is evasive, and all he will explain is that his misfortunes are the fault of Mr. Harold Dogstony, the publicity promoter for the show in question—which was the same one that was to have a Military Night in honor of your engagement to Irene Cackleberry—don't you remember when you and your entire regiment were stricken with measles?"

Capt. Tynnefoyle bowed. "I remember it well," he said. "And yet I doubt if we could get pensioned for what we suffered when we were quarantined in the armory and the Board of Health refused to permit an ice cream soda to pass our parched lips!"

"Well," Mrs. Jarr went on, "I know there's something wrong, but Mr. Jarr declares he doesn't know what the fat young woman meant when she wrote her brother that he was 'leery of the Jains.' Nobody seems to know, and now the fat young lady can't be found, for Mr. Dogstony's show closed in Chicago and no one knows where Mr. Dogstony is, and meanwhile Mr. Jarr is under suspicion!"

"He could be court-martialed, he SHOULD be court-martialed!" said Capt. Tynnefoyle. "I feel sure it is a Mexican cipher code."

"Mr. Dinkston says 'Jains' are a Hindu religious sect," whimpered Mrs. Jarr, "and he says the shipping clerk's fat sister may be one of them, or a Buddhist, although Mr. Dinkston says that is no excuse for her using a slang word like 'leary,' which means shy or shrewd, nor for spelling a proper noun, the word 'Jain,' with a small 'j.'"

"Well, the only way to find out the true inwardness of it, and in times of such tension the true inwardness should be known, is to hold a court-martial," declared Capt. Tynnefoyle. "I will preside, and I have some new dance steps to show our friends."

So the Jarrs are to hold a court-martial tango, and Mr. Jarr will surely be present. He missed his beefsteak dinner, you know.

A New Line of Art.

THE red-headed and dissatisfied boarder was a large man with a large appetite, says the Popular Magazine. After dinner he went into the narrow yard, shook both fists at the silvery moon, hurled several imprecations toward the congress of the stars and burst forth into a picturesque and voluminous flood of abuse which was devoted entirely to the landlady.

One of the other boarders, who had been at the house a long time, thereby accumulating a pallid look and a palate with corns on it, drew near timidly and ventured to ask what the special kick was.

"What's the matter?" echoed the large man. "That old dame's the first woman I ever knew who could literally paint food on a plate."

Getting Down to Facts.

IT was simply a question of veracity between us," said the oldest inhabitant. "He said I was a liar, and I said he was one."

"Humph!" rejoined the village postmaster. "That's the first time I ever heard either of you speak the truth."

You can convince a woman of almost anything by agreeing with her.

A word to the "wise guy" is insufficient.—Boston Transcript.

Man used to go to a barber shop to have their hair cut or get a shave. Now they go there to recline in a chair while the barber goes through a course of physical exercise.—Toledo Blade.

Too often a warm heart is attended by an empty pocketbook.

To make things come your way, never cease pursuing them.—Deseret News.

Our descriptive language is full of seemingly paradoxical statements. For instance, when we say a man "hits the ceiling" we mean he is "down and out."—Macon Telegraph.

Loyalty is what makes every man lie a little about the population of his own town.—Toledo Blade.

Her French.

MRS. PUTTON-AYRES had plucked up a few French phrases which she worked into her talk on every possible occasion. Entering the butcher's shop one day, she inquired if he had any "bon-vivant."

"Boned what, ma'am?" asked the butcher, puzzled.

"Bon-vivant," she repeated. "That's the French for good liver, you know."

Soundful.

"Here!" he growled, "what do you mean by waking me out of a sound sleep?"

"Because, dear," replied his wife, sweetly, "it was such a distressing sound."

An Eating Proposition.

A STALWART young German applied for a position on a farm. As he walked into the barn he addressed the farmer: "Hey, mister, will you job me?"

"Will I what?"

"Oh, I see; you want a job," said the farmer. "Well, how much do you want a month?"

"I tell you. If you eat me on der farm I come for five dollars, but for Schmidt's."—National Food Magazine.

Described.

"Is he a good conversationalist?"

"He's all right when the weather's changing."

All You Need Is Figures to Guess on Doomsday

THE scientific guesser crawls out from his guesstery and remarks in a grave tone that the sun will cool in 2,000,000 years and the earth will freeze.

Of course, there is no copyright on this sort of scare stuff, and no reason why an active young man with a fair command of figures and a proper contempt for accuracy—a slavish habit—can't rise in the profession and finally nail his calling card on the pinnacle of enviable notoriety.

That it isn't so hard to do will be shown by the following careless chronicles:

In three million years the rings of Saturn will fuse their bearings and drop through space.

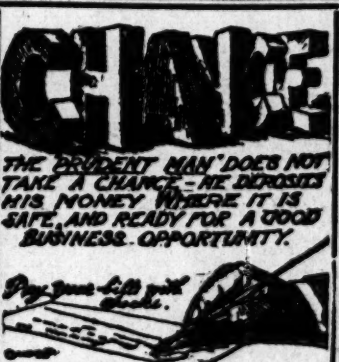

In A. D. 6742 the Von Sizzle comet will switch the dogstar clean across the milky way.

In the eighty-seventh century the sun will jump its orbit and melt the handle of the dipper.

In A. D. 8999 the earth, through lack of internal caloric, will become a cold proposition.

In 16,722 years from now the next convulsion of amalgamated planets and fixed stars will take place, and it is confidently expected that a number of shins will be dropped from the membership roll, the black list including the earth, the moon, the goat and both bears.

You see it isn't a bit different.

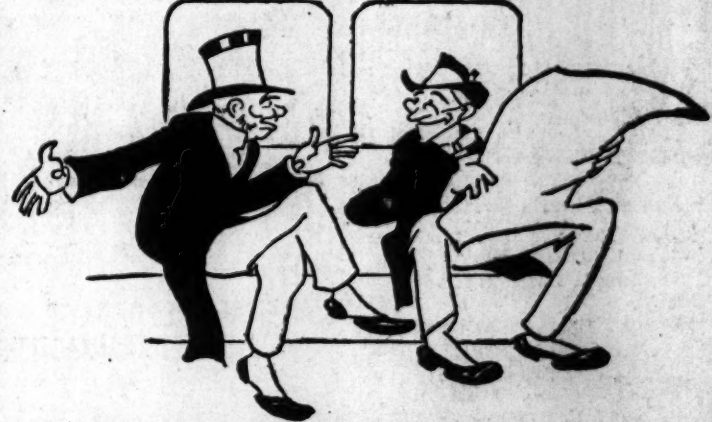

Foolish, indeed, is the man who "chances" all the earnings of his lifetime on some good-seeming investment without first thoroughly investigating its merits. We shall cheerfully advise our customers or their friends on money matters.

Our judgment is based on years of experience in the investment field; and we advise everyone to "look before he leaps" and takes what may prove a disastrous "chance."

Low-fare summer excursions California

Why not the Far West this summer for you? Visit Yosemite, and, en route, that titan of chasms, the Grand Canyon of Arizona. Get away from the beaten path, and pioneer a little.

The Santa Fe offers you—
Four trains a day to California. Double track half the way. Block-signal safeguards. A dustless roadbed. A cool ride a mile up in the sky. Fred Harvey meals. And that world-wonder, the Grand Canyon. Any line to Kansas City, thence Santa Fe. Ask for our summer travel publications. One, C. Chambers, Gen. Agt., 200 N. 7th St., St. Louis, Mo. Phone, Bell Main 180; Kinloch Central 5078.

The only line to both 1915 Panama Exposition—San Francisco and San Diego.

The penalty of having no enemies is usually equal lack of friends.—Albany Journal.

It holds to the road like the heaviest car. That's one of the beauties of the light-weight Studebaker SIX. That's one reason why it leads in sales. That's one reason why every owner is an enthusiast. Another reason is its small-bore, long-stroke motor—well-balanced, full powered and economical.

Another reason is its full-floating rear axle. Another is its full equipment of Timken bearings—even to the hubs. Another reason is its Studebaker-Wagner steering and lighting system. These things are very evident marks of Studebaker value—so evident you can't escape them. They make for long life—for constant service—for economical service.
